

To Dedicate Field House May 28th

Arlington Heights new field house will be officially dedicated Sunday afternoon, May 28. Elmer Crane and George Glow are in charge of the program for that day. The first public event to be held in the building after its dedication, will be the district Legion meeting on May 31. This will be followed on June 10 and 11 by the annual flower show of the local garden club. The pool will be opened for the season on June 15.

The park board anticipate many requests for the building, but has not yet set up the rules that will govern the use of the structure.

The park will officially open for the season Sunday when the Redwings will meet Chicago colored Cardinals. With the enlarged facilities for ball players and the general public, record breaking games are expected to attend the season. The Redwings are rather proud of the home grounds. A softball schedule has not yet been announced, but with facilities of two fields for that purpose, a full summer schedule is almost certain.

Arlington Heights park project is one of the prize WPA projects in the Chicago area and that government agency will have a part in the dedicatory program the last of the month. It is the hope of the committee to have all civic organizations of Arlington Heights have a voice in arranging the dedicatory program.

Palatine Lions Ask Action By Village Board

Ask General Cleanup Of Business District

A delegation from the Palatine Lions club called on the Palatine board Monday evening and asked the cooperation of the board on several matters of importance to Palatine.

Among the things discussed were adequate parking spaces to take the all day parked cars off the Main streets, painting of the depot, improvement of the railroad crossings, removal of garbage dumps, filling in of unsightly holes and a general clean-up campaign.

The board received the suggestions of the Lions committee in fine spirit and promised hearty cooperation in the proposed improvements.

A parking ordinance which has been discussed before will again be revived and the judiciary committee of which trustee E. R. Prout is chairman, will hold a meeting and public hearing on the advisability of such an ordinance on Monday evening, May 15, at the village board room.

Anyone interested in the parking problem can be heard at this meeting of the committee.

Loses Horses During An Hour Absence; Found Tied In Forest Preserve

Two horses, one of them worth $600, disappeared from the farm of Al Haseman, Ela and Dunee, last Friday evening, while Haseman had left them for about an hour. He discovered fence wires cut and started a search in the neighborhood until five hours later, they were found in the forest preserve, tied to a tree.

INFANT WELFARE CLINIC

The Arlington Heights Infant Welfare Clinic, will be held Tuesday from 1-3 p. m. at the Health center, village hall.

Pigs Discover A New Home By Herald Want-Ad

Moving week was no task at all for thirteen little pigs at the farm of Fred Kraus. It wasn't twelve hours before they decided to leave the farm on Foundry and Elmhurst rds. when presto there were almost as many men as the pigs numbered, who had come to answer their plea for a new home. But let them speak for themselves:

"It was on a Wednesday when Mr. Kraus told us that our lease had expired, and it was time that we paid for our three months table fare. Mr. Kraus was very nice about it and asked what he could do for us.

"We talked it over and came to the conclusion that the BEST and ONLY way to find another friend was to put an advertisement in the Cook County Herald. Ferdinand, the Bull and all the rest of the barnyard friends had found their new homes through the Herald and newspapers, and so we pooled our ice cream money, 45 cents, and Mr. Kraus put the ad in the paper.

"Before Thursday went by, Mr. Kraus had all kinds of callers, the first one accepting Mr. Kraus' offer without even turning around and having a look at us. He said he had used 'Paddock's want-ads' before."

Council Greet Newly Elected Aldermen

Routine Business Makes Short Work At Board Meeting

C. L. Griffith and Theodor Studdman, newly elected board members, took their places around the council table Monday night, while a fair sized crowd filled the village hall to witness the induction. Appointment of committeemen will be settled at a special meeting of the board Monday night.

The new members were called to the front after the old board adjourned since die Griffith, in his "inaugural" address, stressed the fact that, during his campaign, he had made no promises to party faction, or anyone else, and, therefore, owed nothing. He said:

"I have promised nothing except to cooperate with the board and give my best to the interests of the public and the community." Studdman replied with "I second the motion of Mr. Griffith" and the newly constituted village board became a reality. Trustee Adam was not present.

Following adjournment of the new board to Monday evening, all members present went into a conference to discuss committee assignments and appointments, which will be announced Monday evening.

The last acts of the old board covered merely routine matters. The treasurer told the board that the past fiscal year had been a good one for receipt of general taxes, which amounted to $26,000. The village now has a credit of $3,238 with the state highway department.

The ages of all members of the fire department have been filed with the clerk who will check those who are eligible for retirement.

With the arrival of spring, accidents began to take place according to the police department. There have been five accidents the past 32 days with two personal injuries.

Following the adjournment of the old board, the clerk read a letter from George Klehm, which outlined the special civic activities in which he has had a part during the quarter of a century that he has served on the board.

Wheeling To Improve Streets With State Gas Tax Money

The Wheeling board of trustees passed the necessary resolution at its May meeting Monday night to start the machinery in motion for the improvement of Wille ave. from Dundee to Highland and Center st., from Milwaukee to Wille.

The state has recently accepted these streets as arterial highways on which $2500 is authorized to be expended for their improvement. The funds will come from gas tax money held by the state highway department to the credit of the village.

Engineer W. F. Turpin was present Monday evening and was authorized to prepare the necessary plans. The exact nature of the improvement depends on an inspection of the present condition of the streets by Mr. Turpin and the street committee. Proposals for the work are expected to be ready for advertisement by next Monday night when an adjourned meeting of the board will be held.

With Mayor Hans Schmidt in the chair, the old board finished up the business of that body in short order. The regular reports were accepted and the last official act was the declaration of the election result. Mr. Johnson, retiring member of the board, himself made the motion that Marshall Balling, Theo. Pieper and Frank Utpadel be declared elected.

The chief business of the new board was the fixing of the yearly tavern license fee. After considerable discussion and consultation with the attorney, the board decided that the fee of $175 remain at its present figure for one more year. Action on a higher fee should have been taken prior to April 30, stated attorney Woolster.

Due to delay in canvassing of ballots, Mayor Schmidt had been unable to have his committee appointments ready that evening and he asked an adjournment to next Monday night when appointments will be made.

Extra!

Final approval of the Northwest R. R. is expected to be given today to the removal of the old freight depot and the erection of the new one at the west end of the west park (two blocks west of the present structure. Immediately on final approval, report of costs will be made to the general committee.

Many contractors have volunteered aid: supply men are expected to grant special prices on materials. With the purpose in view of getting the old depot out of the way before the race track opens, a whirlwind financial campaign will be necessary.

Subscriptions may be solicited before next week's paper goes to press.

Red Wings Play Chicago Nine This Sunday

Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in Recreation Park, the empire will shout "play ball" and the Arlington Redwings will open the 1939 baseball season. The Chicago Cardinals, one of the better colored teams from Chicago, will be the opponents.

Last year this same club helped Arlington open the season and put up such a great stand that it required a desperate nine inning rally by the Redwings to snatch a victory by the narrow margin of 5-4.

The Chicago Cardinals are a firmly established team being well organized, carrying over their best players from year to year thereby assuring themselves of a high class club right from the start of the year.

From what manager Page has heard at the Mid-west League meeting, the Cardinals are stronger and intend to take the winners prize this time. Their main improvement is a new pitcher, who if better than the one of last year, may give Arlington hitters trouble.

This will be the tenth year of the Redwings and the third year they are playing in Recreation Park which is believed to be the best semi-pro ball field around Chicago. Only a few men on the present team were on the original club during the first few years.

The club has been built into a strong semi-pro outfit made up of practically all home town boys.

Skill Machines, Punch Boards Are No More

(A Hearsay Story)

Was one of the newly elected aldermen responsible for the surprise raid Tuesday afternoon of the Arlington Heights police, which entered taverns, drug stores and other places of business removing ten "skill" machines, little brothers to the much famed slot machines?

Really, the Herald is not certain, but a little bird has whispered into the reporters' ear that it was one of the new aldermen who innocently inquired Monday night at a conference session of village board members, "if it were true that there were slot machines still in Arlington Heights." Complaints of parents centered around playing of penny machines by children.

Several of the older members replied in the negative, but the suggestion of slot machines was enough to send the police department into a huddle and lo and behold they found a total of ten. Some of them are only penny machines, but all of them were declared in the same class and it did not take long before Chief Skoog started on his collection tour about the business district.

The machines with their cash are locked up in the vault at the treasurer's office. The next day they were joined by a lot of punch boards.

Last Chance To Register

This week the registration books are open at the offices of the village and town clerks.

This will be the last chance to register or change your address from one precinct to another before the judicial election in June.

Anyone who has moved from one precinct to another, should make application for a change of address or they will find that they cannot vote.

Three Months Old Infant Dies

Mr. and Mrs. Clement Weidner had the misfortune to lose their three months old son, Donald, who died Friday at the Children's Memorial hospital, Chicago. The funeral was held Saturday morning at Buffalo Grove.

Arlington's Grand Old Man

GEORGE H. KLEHM

The old timers of Arlington Heights are well acquainted with the community service that George Klehm has given to Arlington the past fifty years. His retirement from the village board Monday, after 23 years of continuous service on that body recalls many of the worth while things that he has done for the village and its schools.

No living resident of Arlington Heights has a greater standing monument than Mr. Klehm in the growing things that are all about us.

He is one of the two oldest native residents of this village. His father established Klehm's Nurseries in 1856 and he has devoted his life to growing things. It was his enthusiasm that brought about the introduction of Moline elms to this country — an accomplishment that was recognized by Henry Ford and other prominent men of the U. S. He fathered the introduction of 60,000 Moline elms at the City of Milwaukee, which lays claims to having the finest landscape of any large city. Mr. Klehm took a lot of pleasure in replacing old trees in Arlington especially around school grounds.

While a member of the grade school board he was instrumental in the purchase of ground where the present new school building stands.

Mr. Klehm was on the high school board twelve years. At its establishment, he urged the purchase of 25 acres, ten of which to be used as an experimental tract under the guidance of the state department of agriculture, which would furnish one instructor free to the high school.

Mr. Klehm is certain that fruit

can be grown in this part of Illinois that equals that grown in any part of the United States. It was his hope that experimental work by the state would develop fruit growing industry here.

The original landscape plans of the high school were made by Mr. Klehm and he furnished all of the trees, shrubs and evergreens free of charge. He also gave the same service to the southside school.

It was as a village alderman that Mr. Klehm gave his greatest contribution to his community, was repeatedly giving and again giving his nursery stock to enhance the beauty of his home town.

A gold watch was presented to him on his 75th birthday in October, 1937, by his fellow officials and village employees.

A small history of municipal events is kept by him in his "little black book," that he is ever ready to present as authority on important data that concerned the village.

Mr. Klehm holds the distinction of having to his credit more years of public service as an official than probably any other man in Cook county. The years total 59 and include 23 years as village trustee, 23 years as member of District 25 School Board, twelve years as member of the high school board and one year as village clerk.

Any man who has been in an election and last month Mr. Klehm was defeated politically for the first time in his life. That defeat was no reflection upon him as a man, or as a public official. He still has many hundreds of loyal friends and admirers. To them he will ever be Arlington's Grand Old Man.

Fiore, of Chicago, was taken to the Community hospital after trying to match blows with Thomas Ksiezyk, of Chicago, after their two cars collided on the Northwest highway, near Quentins rd., Palatine.

Judge Behrens Decides Moonlight Makes A Difference

The state police found a Park Ridge contractor and the lady friend parked without lights on the shoulder of the highway Tuesday evening. They took the couple to Judge Behrens at Arlington Heights even if the hour was late. The judge had not forgotten the time when he was young and on the plea of the man that the combination of moonlight and a lovely maid was irresistible, dismissed the case.

The arresting officer admitted that the judge was probably right.

Night Life In Arlington Heights

Some of our readers may think that nothing happens in Arlington Heights during the hours of darkness. If nothing happens, the credit belongs to our efficient night police officers—Wm. Heideman and Ira Melbourne. These men in addition to being subject to instant call by radio, patrol between 75 and 100 miles each evening. More than one night worker or midnight train passenger is aware of their ever presence. More than one householder sleeps easier because of that police patrol. There is reason why Arlington Heights is free from night crimes.

The editor learned something else this week about the community service that these two men have done in ridding the village of habitual drunks. Respect for the local police may not keep a drunk sober, but it does keep him out of circulation. At one time recently there were three local fellows boarding out at the county jail. They do not want to return and they know that Officers Heideman and Melbourne will not hesitate to book them on a charge that means prison terms if they can not pay their fines. This means that drunks at night time have become a rarity in Arlington Heights.

More power to Melbourne and Heideman.

Double Parking Of Autos Places Young Boy In Hospital

Craig (Sparky) Baldwin, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Baldwin, dodged around a parked truck on Duntion st., in front of his father's store last Thursday at the same moment that an auto was approaching. There was a scream as the little fellow was hurled to the ground, a front wheel passing over a leg. The car was stopped by its driver "on a dime." The little fellow was picked up by his dad and rushed to Dr. Meisheimer's office and later to Elmhurst hospital. The only injuries are a broken right leg. Sparky is a courageous little fellow and if good wishes of Arlington Heights friends mean anything, it will not be many weeks when he will again be on his feet.

Sparky is getting along nicely and sends messages to his friends at home every time his mother visits him.

The only blame, if there is a blame can be placed on the fact that double parking existed on the street at the time. Sparky had no opportunity to see the approaching car. The same thing could have happened to any child.

Dog Brings Aid Of Family To Stubby Meyer

A dog is man's best friend no matter if the animal is a "Duke's mixture," says Stubby Meyer since early Friday morning. Mr. Meyer had started up the stairs from his tavern, when he lost consciousness. The dog was on the other side of the tavern door, but seemed to sense that something was wrong. His frantic barking awoke the family who found Mr. Meyer at the foot of the stairs. He was confined to the bed two days, but is now able to be about.

Letters From Europe Bring Echoes Of War

Residents of Arlington Heights are receiving letters from relatives in Europe telling of the preparations for war that are being taken over there. One Arlington Heights business man received word this week that all of his relatives had been called to the colors in defense of Rumania. In this case the relatives are Germans who in reality are part of the minority being forced to act against their natural countrymen.

Electors of Wheeling township will convene at an adjourned session of the annual town meeting next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock for the purpose of hearing a report and recommendations of the citizens committee and the reading of a new audit of the books of Chas. F. Grandt, who vacated his office two weeks ago.

Gilbert Klehm has been appointed by the town board to the position of township supervisor and will assume the duties of that office as soon as his health permits. He returned home Tuesday from an Evanston hospital.

The election of Mr. Klehm occurred Friday evening when the town board met as a board of appointment for that purpose. A notice was received by the board that Gilbert Klehm had resigned as justice of the peace and as a member of the board of auditors. Attorney Zalesky, supposedly representing Chas. F. Grandt, was present, but said very little.

The new audit of township books, bringing the audit of last year down to the time that Mr. Grandt vacated the office was presented, but was immediately ordered sealed for presentation next Tuesday directly to the town electors.

The chief purpose of the adjourned meeting is consideration of the audit and what procedure should be taken to indemnify the township for any shortages that may exist.

The first adjournment of the town meeting was held April 11 when the citizens committee presented a list of recommendations, to which Chas. F. Grandt, who was present, affixed his signature, thereby expressing his willingness to abide by them. Since that time, Mr. Grandt disappeared after apparently surrendering his office by turning over his books.

It is presumed that Mr. Klehm will accept the recommendations of the citizens committee which provide:

Countersignature of town clerk on all checks.

Approval of all bills by auditors before their payment.

Maintenance of proper set of books.

Preparation of proper reports for publication.

Appointment of relief investigator to be made by board of auditors.

Separation of township and personal bank accounts.

Township to be protected by surety bond.

The township relief has been handled under the direction of Howard Helm, assisted by Mrs. Chas. F. Grandt and Esther Dieber. Payment of outstanding orders, held by local merchants will probably be started as soon as 1939 tax warrants can be sold.

April Building Permits Are $54,000

April has been a good month for building in Arlington Heights. Permits were issued by Paul Taege, building commissioner for $54,900. Included were five new homes, alterations totaled $2,400.

Herman Tesch Hit By Chicago Motorist

Herman Tesch, former janitor at grade school, is confined to his bed with injuries to his head and fracture of a small bone sustained when he was hit by a car at Duntion and the Northwest highway Friday night. The driver of the car assisted the police in taking Mr. Tesch to a doctor.

Gilbert Klehm Extends Appreciation To Blood Donors

Only one who has passed thru the experience can realize the thankfulness of a wife and the family when physicians issue a call for blood for transfusion purposes. I was too ill to care very much, but upon my return home I want to publicly express my appreciation to Carl Benrens and his son for the blood they donated and likewise my thanks to the others who made similar offers.

Gilbert Klehm.

It Is Still Twelve Taverns In Arlington Heights

The expected rush for additional tavern licenses did not materialize and licenses were granted to the twelve locations previously used for that purpose. Mr. Watson has taken out the license for the Town Pump in his own name.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 30.

The Golden Text was, "Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?" (Genesis 18:25).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "He not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap. For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting" (Galatians 6:7, 8).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The design of Love is to reform the sinner. If the sinner's punishment here has been insufficient to reform him, the good man's heaven would be a hell to the sinner. They, who know not purity and affection by experience, can never find bliss in the blessed company of Truth and Love simply through translation into another sphere... Escape from punishment is not in accordance with God's government, since justice is the handmaid of mercy" (pp. 35-36).

SEEING is BELIEVING

When you stop your car on our Brake Tester and actually see how your brakes behave, you know without anyone telling you, whether they need attention or not.

Our Brake Tester is like four horizontal scales—each one telling just how much braking energy is applied to its wheel. When we adjust, reline or overhaul your brakes, they are tested and proven on this same Tester, so you know exactly how they will act on the road.

Car owners who have used our brake service are enthusiastic in saying they can feel the difference. It's a mighty sweet sensation, too, to know you can depend on your brakes—any time, under any conditions. Why not bring your brake work to us, and experience it?

Sues Tavern Keeper For Divorce; Claims He Has Large Income
Mrs. Isabelle Heinz has filed a suit for divorce in Superior court against Jacob C. Heinz, tavern proprietor and Sanitary district employee of Niles Center. She charges cruelty and gives several examples, the latest being that in March he broke her arm which is still in a plaster cast. She says they married in 1925 and separated April 27 last. They have a daughter aged 14.

She says she helped him accumulate wealth by acting as barmaid in his tavern. She claims he is wealthy with a good income from his tavern, a $70 a week sanitary district job, income from a house and has money in the Niles Center State bank.

She asks a division of property, alimony and support for her daughter also injunctions to prevent him beating her any more and to tie up the money in the Niles Center bank.

Prospect Heights

We again extend a hearty welcome to four more families who moved into the new section, or third addition to Prospect Heights, and they are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harpell, on Clarendon ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilcox, Clarendon ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lohr, Clarendon ave.; also Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Colley, also on Clarendon ave.

During the month of April nineteen families moved into the community, which is an increase of seven more than April of last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams entertained Mr. Lloyd E. Howe, of Wonder Lake, over the weekend, and as usual he had a very pleasant visit with the folks.

Since Monday was the opening of the fishing season, Ed Miller, Macdonald rd., drove up to Fox Lake, accompanied by his father and his business partner, Mr. DeMott, where all three spent a very pleasant morning. The men caught enough fish for all three families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gohardt, also Mr. and Mrs. Don Ewing of Chicago, were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayne Bowman on Olive st. All had an enjoyable time at supper, playing cards and reminiscing since they all attended college together.

We regret that Mrs. Miller has been suffering from a very bad cold, which had settled in her throat, and makes her feel pretty miserable. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Fern Blake, of Oak Park, visited her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Stegaman on Elmhurst rd. on Sunday, and returned home with a Persian kitten, which was obtained from someone in the community.

Will, Jr., and Marvin Stegaman are at present playing foster parents to five baby rabbits. They are having a great time feeding them with a baby bottle.

Mrs. Nan Rauen, who lives at Lake Delton, Wisconsin, last Thursday accompanied by Mrs. John Popp, formerly of Long Grove, Ill., who will now make her home at Lake Delton. After visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Popp, at Lake Delton, Mrs. Rauen drove down to Baraboo, and visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Marquardt. After a very enjoyable visit, Mrs. Rauen returned by train on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Maxwell visited with Jim and Anne Nielsen on Saturday, and as usual had a very pleasant afternoon.

On Sunday afternoon Jim and Anne Nielsen entertained their niece and her new husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy DeVoe of Chicago. The folks enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon and evening. Jim's brother and family from the south side of Chicago, were also guests on Sunday.

Mr. Allord, proprietor of the Royal Blue store, advises us that he is now carrying a complete line of flower and vegetable seeds, along with the groceries, fresh fruits and vegetables. Don't forget the store is open from 7:30 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. Monday through Friday, and from 9:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m., afternoon 4:00 p. m. to 6:00 p. m. on Sunday.

Who's Who

Since the community has grown so fast we will try to get a couple of Who's Who in each week.

The first Who's Who will be a family who moved into the new section October 1 of last year from Chicago. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayne Bowman, and Edward Albert, their nine year old son, who are located on Olive st. They moved to Chicago eight years ago from Portland, Oregon, where they met and were married. They celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary last New Year's day.

Mr. Bowman is supervisor of adjustments at Marshall Field & Co., where he has been for the past two years. Previous to going with Fields, he was an instructor of history and civics. Mrs. Bowman is office manager of the western branch of the Topics Publishing Co., and has been with that firm for the past two and a half years.

Mr. Bowman likes to read, listen to the radio, golf and is interested in civic affairs. Mrs. Bowman prefers home managing to office managing, but at present is kept very busy doing both. She likes to knit, hook rugs, hike and make garden. Eddie has a great interest in art work and attended classes at the Art Institute about a year ago, at which time he had some of his work

GOOD THOUGHTS

If a man is unhappy, this must be his own fault: for God made all men to be happy. —Epictetus.

Real happiness is cheap enough, yet how dearly we pay for its counterfeit. —Hoshea Ballou.

May I ever realize that I do not give to get, but that my labor in the Master's vineyard is a joy unrepentable. —George C. Duff.

Think not therefore that thou hast found true peace, if thou feel no heaviness; nor that all is well when thou art vexed with no adversary. —Wherein then, O Lord, doth it consist? In giving thyself up with all they heart to the divine will, not seeking thine own interest either in great matters or in small, either in time or in eternity. —Thomas a Kempis.

Happiness is spiritual, born of Truth and Love. —Mary Baker Eddy.

PSORIASIS

By C. W. Lassman of Sieburg Pharmacy

Not particularly painful, not fatal, or even dangerous, psoriasis is still an unsightly and disfiguring ailment. Those who are afflicted with this blotchy skin disfigurement will go to any lengths to effect a cure.

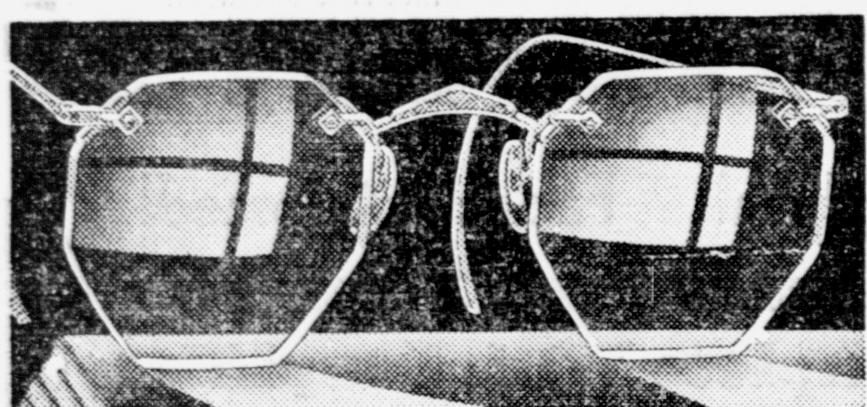

Sunlight is the best cure. The body regularly exposed to strong sunshine recovers its normal condition within a short time.

Not everyone so afflicted can afford the time and money for a sunshine cure in Florida or Arizona. But everyone can consult a good doctor, take regular sun lamp treatments, regiment their lives and habits to effect a cure.

Prescriptions for medication in such treatments should be filled by a skilled and reputable pharmacist.

It Happened Here

The Awakening

Morning! The wide blue heaven Arches the good earth, brown and bare;

To the broad fields a subtle veil is given

That trembles in the heady air. There is a budding in the tender dawn.

A budding by the wooded creek—Lo! As we look, soft greens are drawn

Over the woods we seek. Trees feel their sap thro every fiber rise,

From the blind roots that grope To the bare twigs that lace the skies

And swell with nascent hope. The creek above its stones has heard

The bluejay's ringing shout; Now flowers that sleep where leaves are stirred

Come join our merry rout!

S'Amuser.

WLS radio fans will not wish to miss the WLS home talent show being held Thursday, Friday and Saturday evening of this week in the Wheeling Community gym. The show is being directed by Mr. Jerry Moore of WLS and promises to be an evening of good clean entertainment presenting talent from local and nearby communities. Similar entertainments in other communities have drawn full houses, so come early for good seats. The shows will begin at 8 p. m. and are sponsored by the E. L. C. E. of North Northfield Ev. church. Tickets are on sale at 25c and door admission will be 35c for adults and 15c for children under 12.

The Louis Flentge family moved last Saturday to their new home in Des Plaines which they purchased recently.

Mrs. J. A. Schminko, who spent the winter months with her niece, Mrs. J. Glatz in Chicago, returned home last week eager to care for her yard and garden as well as her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Behm and daughter, Leona, called on friends here on Saturday.

The Boy Scout Troop committee held their monthly meeting last week. The committee is organized as follows: D. C. Morrison, chairman; M. C. Bailing, treasurer; J. W. Craig, outdoor work chairman; O. W. Ellwood, educational chairman. The committee especially considered ways and means to make it possible for more of the boys to attend Scout camp Oh-Da-Ko-Ta this summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Freiwald and two little sons of Chicago visited the Erick Wenzlaffs last week. Mrs. Freiwald is better known in Wheeling as Bertha Penzhorn, and formerly worked with the Wenzlaffs.

The George Perolat family attended the funeral of a relative,

Mr. Daniel Voltz, of Chicago, held on Monday afternoon. Rev. D. C. Morrison attended the graduating exercises and alumni meeting of the Presbyterian Theological seminary held last Thursday.

A group of young people of the Presbyterian church accompanied by several adults, visited the Chicago Historical Society on Sunday afternoon, spending a very interesting afternoon at a very small expense. The Society has an extraordinary display of objects of historical value covering the entire history of our nation, spread over the three floors of the building. A visit to this museum should give everyone a keener appreciation of those who have been the builders of the nation in the past, and a vision of opportunities still open to those with the spirit of a pioneer today. Two of the displays of special interest were the Thorne collection of miniature rooms and a model map of the city of Chicago recently constructed as an educational WPA project which shows every building, street, park, etc. of the city made to the scale of 1 inch to each 300 feet. Part of the group also enjoyed the historical motion picture Suez which was shown there that day.

Mr. Bruno Schulz spent much time last week at the bedside of his brother, Mr. Max Schulz, who passed away in a Chicago hospital on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Schulz attended the funeral service held on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson and children called on friends in Chicago on Saturday.

Mrs. Arthur Fassbender entertained her card club last week. First prize for the evening went to Mrs. August Pieper, second to Mrs. Ray Lesh, and consolation prize fell to Mrs. Emma Grewe.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grandt entertained their 500 club last Wednesday.

Mrs. Robt. Utpadel and Mrs. H. G. Gemmill held high scores for the evening and Mrs. H. Grandt and Mr. R. Utpadel drew seconds.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Cokenower entertained some friends on Sunday as a joint birthday celebration, both of them, as well as Homer Jr., having birthdays within a week.

Bobby Wright was bitten by a dog when roller skating home from school last Wednesday. Mrs. Oakley of Strong st., took him home. His mother having just returned from the hospital, took him for a doctor's examination, but neither doctor happened to be in. Fortunately the wound did not prove serious. However, especially with the approach of warm weather, we think no dogs should be allowed to run at large unmuzzled.

Mrs. Kenneth Hawkins of Yampa, Colorado, is a guest at the Perolat home this week.

Next week has been designated as Clean-up week for Wheeling. All property owners are urged to cooperate and clean up their property, residential and vacant. Free hauling for rubbish will be provided next week on Tuesday and Friday, May 9 and 12, provided it is placed in containers at the curb.

About 35 members of the Wheeling Bowling teams with their wives and husbands, enjoyed a dinner party at the Chicago House last Wednesday evening, marking the close of the bowling season. Chicken and steak dinners were served. The party was part of the original plan of their program, in which each bowler paid a small extra fee each evening to be devoted to prize money and the dinner party at the close of the season. After the dinner those who cared to, danced, others visited, all having a very enjoyable evening. With the spirit of competition removed the group could experience a freer fellowship, than when divided into teams.

Miss Eloise Kruse was delightedly surprised at the Junior Prom of the Highland Park high school when she was crowned "Queen" of the Prom last Saturday evening. Congratulations.

Miss Deborah Port, student nurse at West Suburban hospital, is spending a few weeks vacation with her sister, Mrs. V. Haben.

Eight Records Fall At Palatine Relays

Breaking the Tape for Arlington

Robert Hollinger, Palatine sophomore running star, is shown breaking the tape as anchor man on the winning Frosh-Soph relay team in last Saturday's Palatine Relays. The Palatine quartet of Metz, Cipri, Birks, and Hollinger ran the quarter mile in 48.5 seconds. Barrington and Geneva runners are shown trailing the Pirate sprinter.

Mac Says

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

Another Palatine Relays is over and it was a history making meet as far as track records are concerned. Both hurdles, 220 yard dash, medley relay in both classes, 880 relay in both classes and Frosh-Soph relay in class A, have new records posted as a result of Saturday's seventh running of the meet. 1935 is the only year that compares with this in number of records broken. It is noteworthy that every record among the eight broken Saturday was on the track. Not a one of the six field events was threatened.

SPECTATORS ACCOMMODATED

Saturday's meet was also noteworthy in that it was the first time that the spectators have been successfully handled so that all could see the meet without interference. The work of Palatine teachers and certain picked students accounted for this. The help we were given this year in preparing for and putting on the meet was the best we have ever had. We wish to take this opportunity to thank everyone who helped make the meet a success. The largest crowd attended the meet that we have ever had but if any profit was realized it was very slight as the expense greatly exceeded other years.

FOUR PENALTIES INFLICTED

There were four disqualifications in Saturday's meet. We had two officials on each course properly instructed. The violations were as follows: (1) passing baton outside of 20 yard zone; (2) running part way in another man's lane in the hurdle race; (3) physical contact in passing an opponent too close; (4) cutting off an opponent on a curve by cutting in sharply when but a step ahead. (rule requires two steps ahead to take the pole). All but one of the penalties was taken without comment by the coach whose team was guilty.

MANY OUTSTANDING SOPS

Ten sophomores stood out in Saturday's meet as great future prospects if not stars at present. Zedrow of Naperville is in our opinion the best sophomore to have competed here in the seven years of the meet. His new 220 record of 22.8 seconds is one of the best the meet can boast and he also won the 100 yard dash in 10.4 seconds. Others who showed up well were Bacon of Lake Forest, Heinzel of Naperville, Hartzell of Naperville, McIntosh of Lake Forest, Elison of Bensenville, and Hollinger, Senne, and Cipri of Palatine.

LOSE BUT THREE MEN

Only three of the Naperville boys who scored in the Palatine Relays will be lost to Coach Harshbarger's team. Shoger, Kroger, and Preston are the seniors. Underclassmen scored 46 of Naperville's 65 points.

Palatine Squad Prepares For Conference Meet

Track Men Have Heavy Schedule
Until May 23

Elated by the winning of 14 medals in the Palatine Relays last Saturday the Pirate track squad went to work this week for the start of a series of dual meets which includes each of the four teams to be met in the new conference meet May 23. Thursday the Pirates entertain a well balanced Barrington squad and it should be anybody's meet. The Broncos have much more strength in the weights and short dashes, but the Pirates stand out in other events.

Saturday the Palatine Frosh-Soph squad will compete in the Fourth Annual North Shore Frosh-Soph meet at Evanston. Coach McElroy has entered Hollinger, Senne, Trepus, K. Birks, Metz, Cipri, McCombs, Hahnfeldt, and Snyder.

Next week Palatine travels to Bensenville Tuesday for a combined Varsity and Frosh-Soph meet and on Friday are host to Northbrook. Boys entered in the State District meet at Evanston on Saturday will not compete against Northbrook. Then the week following finds the Pirates meeting Grant on Tuesday, May 16 on the home track and traveling to McHenry on Friday, May 19. The conference meet will be held at Palatine Tuesday afternoon, May 23.

TOUGH BREAK

Had Harlen been in class B this year they would have won the division trophy with ease as they scored 26 points to rank third in the A class and well above Geneva the B winner. Harlen's official enrollment figure for the year according to the state school directory is just slightly over the 300 division mark which divides the A and B sections. And then Andrews, one of Harlen's outstanding boys, was injured in a meet on Tuesday preventing his entry at Palatine.

O'HARA LEADS SCORERS

The leading individual scorers in the meet were as follows: O'Hara, Lake Forest, 14½; Zedrow, Naperville, 11¼; Hoss, Arlington, 10; Oswald, Harlem, 10; Shogery, Naperville, 9½; Wilson, Crystal Lake, 9; Stark, Geneva, 8; Albrecht, Naperville, 8; Ekstrom, Harlem, 8; Dahlin, Geneva, 7½; Deodue, Naperville, 7; Baumgartner, Bensenville, 6½; Bauman, Marengo, 6.

BENSVILLE A CINCH

Bensenville appears a cinch to cop the new Northwest Conference track title May 23, when the Bisons compete against Barrington, Grant, Palatine and Northbrook on the Palatine track. Whether Palatine or Barrington will be the runnerup will be easier to decide after this pair engage in a dual meet Thursday afternoon of this week at Palatine. The new Northeast Conference will hold their meet at Leyden on the same day as the Northwest meet. It looks to us like Lake Forest and Crystal Lake will battle it out for the Northeast title.

DECIDING GAME

If Arlington can beat Niles again Tuesday, the Cards will just about clinch the Northeast football title. They did it once in a crucial game at Arlington Tuesday 2-1, but can they do it again? That is the question. Boyk, Niles moundsman, had allowed one hit in 14 innings of pitching against Woodstock and Leyden the previous week and Arlington got only four bingles off his delivery Tuesday.

WE MAKE A SUGGESTION

How about a Northwest Conference tennis tournament on the Northbrook courts the last Saturday in May? They are the best courts in the league and the Northbrook officials are willing to entertain such a tourney.

Bensenville Frosh-Sops Lose To Leyden, 69-58

Bensenville Frosh-Sops were defeated in their track meet with Leyden, Tuesday afternoon, losing 69 to 58. They found that R. Doss, of Bensenville, was their biggest threat, scoring 18 points in such events as high hurdles, discus, 440 yard dash, 100 yard dash, and the high jump. J. Thomas was high for Bensenville with a total of 15½ points. He tied for the low hurdles event, won the 220 yard dash in the time of 25.9 seconds, won the pole vault at 8 feet, and participated in the winning relay team.

Red Wings Whip Glen Ellyn, 17-2

Arlington Shows
Hitting Power In Season's Opener

by EDDIE WAHL

It required only seven innings for the Arlington Redwings to knock out 16 hits and score 17 runs swamping Glen Ellyn in the season's opener 17-2. While the local boys were blasting base hits of all varieties around the park, Al Pedersen and Schaeffer were holding the Glen Ellyn team to 7 hits.

Starting with the second inning Arlington scored in each frame. Although Cherwin and Schaeffer each had 2 hits along with Farmer Willert, Willert sailed a lofty fly ball out of the park in left field for a home run, gaining top batting honors.

First Hit By Pedersen

Pedersen in the second inning got the first hit of the year. Singles by Willert, Cherwin, and Bolte coupled with a sacrifice fly by Frank Brodman brought in three runs. The third stanza was featured by Farmer's homer which scored Schaeffer with Farmer Willert. Willert sailed a lofty fly ball out of the park in left field for a home run, gaining top batting honors.

The fourth and fifth brought three runs. In the sixth another bombardment hit Glen Ellyn. This time Lefty Kooper suffered. Wahl doubled to left. Hertel singled to score Wahl. Schaeffer singled Hertel to third who a few moments later, scored on a wild pitch. Cherwin's fly allowed Schaeffer to trot home.

Double Play Halts Glen Ellyn

The seventh started with walks to Bolte and Joe Brodman. They moved up on Wahl's bunt. Hertel hit brought them in. Cherwin's third hit, a double, sent Schaeffer home with the final marker. Glen Ellyn had two men on in the first but didn't score. The second inning looked bad for Ped-

Arlington Leads Baseball Race In N. E. Conference

Bases Loaded, Busse
Forces Pop Up To Settle 2-1 Game

In a game full of thrills Arlington's high school baseball team beat Niles township 2-1 Tuesday afternoon to take the lead in the Northeast Conference race. Captain George Grossi opened the second inning with a home run over the left-fielder's head. Erwin Lemke drove out a line triple in the fourth and scored a moment later for the second tally.

Bob Busse pitched fine ball throughout the game, and held Niles in check until the seventh. With two men out Faust singled off Kirchhoff's glove. Boyk singled, Nelson was safe on an error, and Springer walked. One run was in and the bases were loaded when Busse forced Hegarty to pop up to the infield.

Busse allowed five hits, all singles. Boyk pitched for Niles and held Arlington to four but the two for extra bases decided the ball game. These teams will play their return match at Niles Center next Tuesday.

Palatine Net Men Shut Out Northbrook

Palatine won another tennis series Tuesday when the high school shut out Northbrook five to nothing. Last week the Pirates downed Bensenville 3-1. The scores in Tuesday's matches were as follows:

Singles

1. Stewart (P) beat Clavey (NB) 6-2, 6-1.
2. Campbell (P) beat Mueller (NB) 6-4, 6-2.
3. Hollinger (P) beat Kiest (NB) 6-2, 6-3.

Doubles

1. Stewart and Snyder (P) beat Santucci and Quard (NB) 6-1, 6-0.
2. DeBerge and Birks (P) beat Hoffman and Strauss (NB) 6-1, 6-0.

ersen when Osterling led off with a single. Reper hit a ball far to P. Brodman's left, but after a rubber arm stretch Brodman caught the ball in one hand and threw to Wahl at second who relayed to first to complete a double play ending any ideas of Glen Ellyn scoring.

Pedersen, starting the game allowed only three hits in four innings he worked. Schaeffer allowed four but he did not have to bear down with the sizeable lead handed over to him. Both looked good and should carry Arlington through a good year.

Brodman Stars In Outfield

The highlight of defensive play belongs to Frank Brodman who handled five chances without a miscue. His work had much to do with keeping runners off the newly whitewashed bases. None of the ground balls could be called setups.

Considering everything in general, the Redwings were in good condition for this early in the year, especially when considering the bad weather which has held practice to a minimum.

Naperville, Geneva Win; Bensenville Is Close 2nd in Class B

Eight records were broken and one tied last Saturday in the Seventh Annual Palatine Relays as a warm day and a fast track provided ideal conditions. Running true to predictions Naperville scored 65 pounds to outdistance all class A opponents. The nearest rivals in the A division were Lake Forest with 30 points, Crystal Lake and Harlem with 26 and Arlington with 25½. Geneva repeated last year's victory in the B division with 23½ points, but was pushed closely by Bensenville's 21½. Palatine was third with 14½.

New track records were set in both high and low hurdles breaking marks established by Richards of Arlington in 1936 and 1937. Vynalek of Crystal Lake set the low hurdle mark in the preliminaries and O'Hara of Lake Forest broke the high hurdle record in both prelims and finals.

The most remarkable record of the day was set by Zedrow, Naperville, sophomore, in the 220 yard dash. His mark of 22.8 seconds cut nine tenths of a record off the mark of 23.7 made way back in 1933 by Koelling of Arlington. Dahlin of Geneva ran a 53.4 second quarter to tie the record set last year by Folkman of Arlington.

Five relay marks were shattered. Bensenville broke the medley and 880 relay marks in class B while winning first in both events. Palatine in second place in the medley also ran better than the record set by Harlem of Rockford last year. Palatine won the Frosh-Soph relay by quite a margin over their nearest competitors but the time of 4:56 seconds was not as good as Geneva's 4:51 last year.

Crystal Lake shattered the class A Frosh-Soph mark badly moving the figure down from 49.1 to 47.9 seconds. Just as exceptional a record was scored in the 880 yard relay in class A when Naperville was clocked in 1:34.8 min. Crystal Lake and Libertyville, second and third respectively, also bettered the old mark of 1:37.5 made by Arlington in 1935. Lake Forest bettered the class A medley mark of 3:59.5 minutes set last year when they ran the mile in 3:58 flat.

Zedrow of Naperville, with firsts in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Hoss of Arlington who captured the shot and discus titles, and Oswald of Harlem were hurdle and broad jump victors, the only double winners in the individual events. O'Hara of Lake Forest however, proved to be high point scorer of the meet with 14½.

Folkman's record of 53.4 seconds, set last year, was tied by Dahlin of Geneva, who ran in another heat. Another Perfect

Pinochle Hand;

Carl Klehm This Time

It seems that the honor or luck, as one may consider it, of holding a perfect pinochle hand has moved on to a new customer, namely from Tony Pfuntstein to Carl Klehm. A short time ago this seemed almost an impossible feat and now two local fans of the game have succeeded in holding a perfect pinochle hand of 1500 pinochle. What have the rest of you card players to offer?

Kidnapping Party

Is Gleaners Feature

The Gleaners Circle of the Methodist church held a "Kidnapping Party" last week, when two members of the circle went about from home to home of the members, with a blind fold and sign reading "You Are Being Kidnapped, come as you are and bring a quarter." After the various persons so accosted were able to identify the person behind the blindfold they went peacefully along and had a merry party at the home of Mrs. O. G. Barrett, where games were played and refreshments were enjoyed. Editor's Note—Mrs. Albert Hines and Mrs. Jensen were discovered to be the kidnapers and their case is being handled by the club.

Introducing Arlington Heights Little Folks

There are no better pals in Arlington Heights than Ruth and Donald (upper left). Ruth is 5½ years old, has brown eyes and auburn hair. Her big brother is seven years old and has gray eyes. The parents of this happy team are Mr. and Mrs. Havranek, 308 N. Belmont Ave.

Allow us to introduce you to Keith (upper right), three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wilson, 520 Banbury Road. He has brown eyes and is looking forward to a happy time this summer on the spacious lawns of Stonegate.

Do you recognize Jon Henry (lower left), 21 months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Russe? Dad thinks he is a chip off the old block, (so does his granddad); he looks as though he is ready for almost anything.

Barbara Ann (lower right), has no fear of the dentist office. You see she is the two year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Bauman, 416 East Euclid. She has blue eyes and brown hair.

Girls of Class of '36 Meet At Mrs. Neagles

On Wednesday evening, April 26, a group of the girls of Arlington Heights high school class of 1936 gathered at the home of Mrs. Orris Neagle, Palatine, to celebrate her birthday.

Each furnished some little ingredient of salad and lemonade, which, added to candy and cakes, comprised the delicious refreshments.

School-day reminiscence and cards with prizes for each table, were enjoyed by the happy group. Many pretty gifts marked the birthday.

To Miss Anita Svetanoff goes the credit for rounding up the number present.

Some have moved away and been lost trace of, impressing us that graduation is indeed the time when the class becomes scattered in the maelstrom of life.

Gieseke Visits Old Mexico and San Francisco Fair

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gieseke have just returned from a seven weeks trip through six states in Old Mexico and going as far south as Tuxco, which is nearly 150 miles south of Mexico City where they spent nearly two weeks in the tropics.

After returning to the states they visited ten states, among them California where they read the Cook County Herald regularly and where they spent most of their time calling on old friends and acquaintances and attending the fair at San Francisco.

Among the people they called on around Los Angeles and who are Ed. Landeck and the Wilkins at family whose business Mr. Gieseke bought 22 years ago and whom he had not seen since; also the J. D. Helmkins, Mrs. Nick Volz, Otto and Adolph Hahnes, Herbert and E. Landeck and the Wilkins at Huntington Park.

Around San Francisco they called on the Fesslers, Don Thals,

Louis Clausings and the Minneys family, sister of Mr. H. C. Gaare, in Las Vegas, N. M., they called on the William C. Mueller daughters. All are well and contented and send greetings to all their relatives and friends in good old Illinois.

The Giesekes had a delightful trip driving 9,500 miles without a mishap, but they say it feels ever so good to be back home again.

Hagenbrings Return Home

While all of us folks who only home is in Illinois, are congratulating ourselves on the lovely spring weather, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hagenbring arrive in town feeling sorry for us because the temperature is not in the seventies and eighties. They returned last week from Magnolia Springs, Ala., where they have a winter home.

They have been bathing in the ocean and partaking of fresh grown garden vegetables for many weeks. The potato crop which is in process of harvest, is so great on the 20,000 acres in the vicinity of the Hagenbring home, that the price of $2.75 a hundred has dropped to $1.50.

Postmaster Returns From Interesting Trip

Mrs. Virginia Dodge returned Thursday from a ten day personally conducted tour to Washington and historical places in Virginia and adjoining territory. The trip to Washington was made in a special car attached to a B & O train. A large bus took the party on the short trips to Richmond, Williamsburg, Jamestown, Charlottesville, Yorktown, Natural Bridge, Stanton, Endless Caverns, Winchester and Harper's Ferry. Mrs. Dodge says that these places were only school memories and to see them "in person" was very much worth while. Her traveling companions were the best of company.

A Packed House Hears Delightful Spring Festival

The beginner and concert bands, the chorus and girls ensemble of the Arlington Heights township high school presented their annual spring festival to a packed house last Friday evening in the high school auditorium.

Mr. Costain, director of music, gave a short talk to parents, explaining the music aptitude test which is given to all students entering the high school, to ascertain any musical ability that a child may have. This eliminates possible waste in purchasing an instrument for a child, who has no musical ability.

The beginner band played two numbers showing the excellent work which they have done in a six months period, the greater percentage of them never having played an instrument before that time.

The mixed chorus sang several numbers, which were greatly enjoyed by the audience. The girls ensemble which sang over radio station WLS a short time ago on the high school hour on Saturday morning also sang three well prepared numbers. Miss Evelyn Jarvis who was soloist over WLS with the ensemble, selected for her solos, Friday night "Amour Toujours," "L'Armour" and "Without a Song."

Evelyn's voice is not large, but its fine sweet quality, and splendid training make her singing a delight.

The concert band composed of advanced students gave an excellent performance. The novelty number called Typomania, which was played with the use of six typists and their typewriters as well as the band, was quite an innovation in band work. The number was written by a friend of Mr. Costain and was played from manuscript. The six girls at the typewriters were A. Weisberger, L. Bollemann, M. Baker, E. Colba, L. Fahr and E. Hesch. Another number which proved most entertaining was a number in which four members of the band decided to show Mr. Costain how to play "Military Escort" in various rhythms, those taking over the baton were Kay Sobert, Donna Jean Lane, Caryl Mundy and Robert Jensen. The high light of the performance, however, was the appearance of Master Richard Costain, age three years, who appeared as guest conductor with his father, Mr. Donald Costain. Young Richard had the rhythm well in mind for so young a conductor.

Other feature numbers were a comedy reading with accompaniment by the band given by Irwin Gaski and Helen Palmer and Lorraine Schoenbeck played a trumpet duet with band accompaniment. Melvin Preston entertained with his acrobatic between numbers.

This festival of music has proven to be one of the outstanding programs in Arlington Heights each year and this year proved to be no exception. Mr. Costain and the members of his music department are to be congratulated on an excellent performance.

It Is Moving Time

Here they come and there they go. There are many Arlington Heights homes that are welcoming new occupants this spring. Some are merely neighbors who are finding new abodes; others are new residents and occasionally somebody moves to a neighboring town. Here are some of the spring moves:

Public Health Work in Arlington Heights

Community support for the school nurse service is more than justified, judging by the reports submitted by the present nurse, Mrs. Adele Pino. These show that preventive work is being done effectively among all of the children in all of the schools of Arlington Heights. The work has been placed on a more satisfactory basis with the appropriation of public funds for that purpose. Contributions made by several organizations in the community can thus be used for the purchase of badly needed supplies.

The work of Mrs. Pino is under the supervision of the Public Health Committee appointed by Mayor Plentie. This committee was organized under the capable direction of Mrs. V. A. Sturm, chairman. Mrs. Sturm, after getting the committee grouped into necessary sub-committees and functioning effectively, was unable to continue her work and offered her resignation. This was reluctantly accepted by the committee.

Mrs. P. F. Carroll was chosen chairman to succeed Mrs. Sturm who continues as a member of the committee. Arthur McElhose was elected secretary and treasurer.

Sub-committee are: Finance, Mrs. B. A. Noyes, Mrs. K. L. Busse, Mrs. Paul Carroll; Supplies, Mrs. Rex Volz, Mrs. Chas. Klehm; Christmas seals, Mrs. John Allen; Mrs. Maude K. Parker, Mrs. Chas. Fitzpatrick; Baby clinic, Miss Marcia Ruth Martens; Preparation of By-laws, Miss Irene Russell; Publicity, Mr. Raymond E. Hayes.

At the meeting of the Public Health committee on April 25, a resolution was passed to define the duties of the nurse. This resulted from the fact that some persons, able to provide ordinary care for invalids in their families, nevertheless have demanded the services of the school nurse, and in fact have declined to furnish care even when the nurse did call and demonstrate what needed to be done.

The committee recognized that it was utterly unfair to ask the nurse, after she had completed a full day's work to devote her own time to such cases. The following resolution was unanimously adopted:

"Resolved that it is the sense of the Public Health committee that the duties of the public health nurse are to look after health work in the schools and after tuberculosis work, to conduct health education and to provide emergency nurse aid."

Reports of the nurse for the first three months of 1939 show the following work among school children:

Physical inspections 675, Children given care in school 392, Home hygiene classes 12, Junior nurse classes 24, Children weighed and measured 511, Home calls 227.

The physical health inspection in school by the nurse includes the inspection of a child's vision, teeth, tonsils, scalp, skin, posture, and general conditions. The records show (first three months of 1939):

Vision inspections 707, defects 45, corrections 43; Teeth inspections 634, defects 233, corrections 224; Tonsil inspections 634, defects 134, corrections 36.

The Dental Clinic has been organized for those children who are not receiving dental care. It is being held regularly every Monday. All dentists in the village have expressed their willingness to cooperate. Home calls are made to establish the eligibility of the children. There is a small fee of 25c

Entertain Class At Press Club Party

Bill Green and Ray Atkinson entertained twenty-two members of the eighth grade graduating class to a newspaper party last Thursday evening. After the guests "Rose for News" was thoroughly tested, and other games were enjoyed, the remainder of the time was spent in dancing. Menus from "Ray and Bill's Press Club" were presented to each "News Hound" from which they selected their refreshments.

News For The Farmer

Gallup Poll Opposes Farm Benefit Cuts

One of Few Expenses Public Believes Is Worthwhile

"The public has been interested in the measurement of public opinion through the Gallup Poll," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes. Apparently, this poll has revealed an accurate indication of the public's opinion about various questions that people are favoring today. Recently the question was asked of a cross-section of citizens with reference to a number of government expenditures.

The results showed that the majority of people favored expenditure slashes in relief, public works, and the ordinary operating expenses of government. However, the majority of people in this cross-section survey indicated that they were in favor of continuing present expenditures for national defense, old age pensions, and farm benefits.

This would indicate very clearly that the public appreciates that the farm question is one of the problems that requires the participation of the whole public in its solution, and doubtless, more than farmers themselves are inclined to think, the public is willing to bear with the farm problem and they would like to see restoration of farm purchasing power.

Milk Bill Gets 20 to 0 Okeh of Legislators

The state milk regulation and licensing bills, H. B. 483, was unanimously voted out by the House Agriculture Committee at Springfield this week with favorable recommendation, according to information received by the Cook County Farm Bureau from the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The vote of 20 to 0 came following a three-hour hearing in which opponents of the bill were heard. The House of Representatives of the General Assembly will convene as a Committee of the Whole on Thursday, May 11, when speakers for and against the bill will be heard.

Milk producers who are sponsoring the bill point out that milk marketing boards, similar to that provided for in H. B. 483, are operating successfully in Wisconsin and Indiana as well as some of the eastern states. In Indiana and Wisconsin producers are averaging a better net return for milk than in Illinois, yet consumers are paying somewhat less. The answer is more economical cost distribution in the adjoining states.

heavy pigs

INSTEAD of feeding grain alone, supplement it with Purina Sow and Pig Chow. This is the feed combination that helps make plenty of milk for suckling pigs. They'll be up to 50 pounds in weight before you know it. Just try it and see what a difference it makes in pig growth and development.

4-H Club Rally At Palatine Attracts Large Audience

Stunt Contest Won by Club of Palatine - Schaumburg

Mr. E. L. Pilehard, specialist in charge of Boys and Girls 4-H Club work in Illinois, spoke briefly of the opportunities in 4-H Club work at one of the largest rallies ever held in the north end of the county, Saturday evening, in the community room of the Palatine high school.

The 4-H Federation just recently organized in the county was in charge of the program. Introductions were made by Raymond Thies of the Palatine-Schaumburg 4-H Club, president of the federation. "Cultivating the Garden", a stunt presented by the Palatine-Schaumburg 4-H Club won first prize of five dollars to assist in paying their expenses to attend the University 4-H Club Tour in June. Those taking part in the stunt were: Elias Plonsky, Norman Freise, Alan Reinshagen, Eugene Graham, Ralph Pope, Roy Lohse, and Raymond Thies.

A tap dance presented by Robert Harer, and Donald Hintz of the Northfield 4-H Club won second place. "The Boy Who Said Ain't", presented by the Elk Grove 4-H Club was third. Those in the stunt were: Jack Garlich, Margaret Garlich, Melba Behrens, Rollin Busse, Vernon Deeke, and Clarence Grewe.

The stunts were judged by Mr. Reusser and Mr. Hintz of the Palatine Lions Club. The program for the evening was opened by group singing led by Mr. E. L. Pilehard, accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Hintz at the piano. A short talk was given by Mr. C. A. Hughes, Farm Adviser, and movies were shown by Mr. Chas. N. Glover, Assistant Farm Adviser.

After the formal program a number of games were played by the group under the leadership of Mr. Pilehard.

A rally and stunt contest for the south end of the county was held in Blue Island on Saturday evening, April 15.

Clover Winterkilling

"A number of instances have come to our attention where farmers did not care for a red clover stand and expected to kill it last fall by heavy pasturing," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes. "They were surprised to find this piece coming out good at this time of year and the one left alone to grow, blossom, and fall down largely dead."

"In these columns we pointed out last fall that due to the good season, red clover was blossoming and would doubtless fail badly during the winter. Red clover is a biennial growing normally one year, seeding and dying the second. However, some falls with rains and late seasons, it grows and blossoms the first year, and often dies in the winter. The remedy is to pasture red clover, or clip it down before blossoming in the fall, thereby insuring a better crop next spring."

IAA States Position On Legislation

At its April meeting last week the board of directors of the Illinois Agricultural Association outlined its position on a number of important bills before the General Assembly, as follows:

STATE WAGE AND HOUR BILL: Opposed on the ground that it would reduce employment, cut total earnings of labor, increase cost of things farmers buy, and widen the disparity between farm products and non-agricultural goods.

EMPLOYMENT RELATIONS BOARD: Supported because it will tend to improve labor relations, protect farmers against sudden strikes such as Stockyards Workers' strike, prevent labor racketeering, provide honest representation for labor, protect workers' right to join or not to join a union, prevent public disturbance and disorder.

BANG'S DISEASE CONTROL: Supported because it will protect Illinois against importing infected cattle from across state lines, provides for voluntary testing and indemnity payments to owners of cattle that react.

RETAIL SALES: Opposed because it seeks to abolish "loss leaders" and maintain retail sales prices.

CHILD LABOR: Opposed to exploitation of child labor but against limiting employment in agriculture of boys 16 to 18 years old to 8-hour day and 40-hour week.

STATE POLICE: Opposed to increasing force from 350 to 500 unless merit system rather than political appointment is initiated. Unless state police are authorized to enforce all laws, not only traffic laws, and that police patrol highways instead of engaging in other activities.

FARM TRESPASS: Supported because it makes trespassers on farm property liable to fine and imprisonment where a trespassing sign is posted at entrance to farm or party is warned against trespassing.

The board also voted to oppose legislation interfering with right of school board to discharge teachers and employees, refuse to pass state appropriations for teachers' pensions. Opposed bill making possible an annual vote on annexing a given piece of territory to community high school districts. Annexers must wait two years under present act. One vote can vote to include a given area in the district. Favored change in assessment of nursery stock so that land and nursery stock may be assessed as one unit same as any other crop, instead of assessing land and nursery stock separately as now.

Many drivers feel that, because the weather is clear and the road surface dry, they can take chances going around curves, passing vehicles on hills, and so on.

Do you really know on what kind of road surface most accidents on our highways happen?

Wet surface?
Dry surface?
Ice surface?

You will be surprised to know the fact that because you are driving on a dry surface does not mean you can become careless. Only a comparatively small percentage of accidents happen on a wet or icy surface.

Even though the surface of the road is very dry — the weather clear — and all other conditions favorable — "It's Still Smart to Drive Carefully."

Farmers Study Sales Tax In Randolph Street Market

Agents Hurt Peddlers Who Sell Illegally

"Anyone who sells to the final consumer, under the laws of the State of Illinois, is required to pay a sales tax." This, in brief, was the statement made by Mr. W. J. Hudson to township committee at recent meetings held at the Des Plaines Farm Supply Office, April 26th, and the Cook County Farm Bureau office at Blue Island, April 27th.

The object of these meetings was to acquaint these committees with the provisions of the sales tax and to propose suggestions to the sales tax collectors as to how Randolph street situation might best be met.

Pose As Producers
Mr. Hudson stated that it was becoming clear to them that the laxity in enforcing the ordinance in Chicago with reference to the Randolph street market was causing nine-tenths of the farmer's difficulties with the sales tax.

Ordinarily farmers sell wholesale on this market and are, therefore, not subject to the tax. However, most of the peddlers are on the market illegally, sell retail and are subject to the tax but most of them pose as producers.

For this reason farmers are sometimes being apprehended in an effort to enforce this law.

Growing out of the meetings was the probable procedure of the sales tax people in that their field agents will probably be assigned regularly to the Randolph street market so as to learn the personnel that comes to this market. It has been the practice of the office to shift its men so as to prevent an exposure to possible temptations that might arise in the collection of taxes.

Those in the sales tax division are civil service employees and are not dependent on political appointment. Also it is probable that their operations will be more intensive during the afternoons and at times when farmers are not on the market.

When Farmers Are Liable
"We wish to point out," states Wm. Rengel, chairman of the Farm Bureau Marketing Committee. "That farmers who are subject to the tax will wish to pay their sales tax. The only question that we have is, when is a farmer subject to the tax and when is he not?" Under the following conditions farmers, the same as anyone else, owe a sales tax.

1. In cases similar to this: The farmer should be registered with the Sales Tax Department at 105 W. Madison street, Chicago, where a road-side sign is maintained for the sale of eggs and customers come regularly to the farm and buy eggs, milk, or other commodities. However, where a farmer has a flock of chickens that may be small, and an occasional dozen of eggs is sold after an irregular fashion, we have what is called occasional sales and they need not be reported. The line is not clear and it is largely one of judgment rather than any rule that can be laid down.

2. The sale of feed to be fed to live stock where the stock is marketed as a fattened stock for slaughter or where live stock products are sold, as eggs or milk is not subject to the tax. For instance corn sold to feed hogs is not subject to the tax. The tax is collected when the hogs are finally sold to the consumer as meat. An exception to this is the sale of seed. The logic of this ruling is not clear and it may be changed in time.

3. Sales of feed such as hay to be fed to horses, is subject to the tax for the reasons given above.

4. Occasional sales of farm implements and like, such as a plow, fence posts, and second hand automobiles, are occasional and not subject to the tax.

Where To Register
Farmers making consumer sales more or less regularly, should register with the Occupational Sales Tax Division, 105 West Madison street, Chicago.

The method of registration is to pay 3% on a month's returns. A number will be sent and forms on which to report sales will be mailed each month. It is necessary to mail this form back even though no retail sales are made. In this case, "No sales" would be marked on the form and the form returned. It is not contemplated that farmers selling regularly on Randolph street should keep books nor should they apply for a number because in most cases these farmers are selling wholesale and not to the consumer. In this case farmers should be warned that any sale that is suspected of being a retail sale should not be made.

The collection department of the Retail Occupational Tax makes it clear that their investigators are not operating on the theory that they wish to enforce the law in a harsh fashion. When farmers are questioned or sent slips, the purpose is not to cause the farmer a loss of time or embarrassment. Investigations must necessarily be carried on to prevent flagrant and widespread violations of this tax, but the procedure is educational rather than a harsh enforcement of the law. Farmers who are questioned are requested to cooperate in making the best of the situation that they can.

Relieves Property Tax
"It is not generally known," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes, "that the Illinois Agricultural Association, in its lobby at Springfield, finally consented to support the sales tax on conditions that property owners be relieved of that share of their taxes that goes for state purposes. This offset has largely reassured farmers and property owners who bear a very heavy burden of taxes. The sales tax is productive of a large amount of revenue and, peculiarly, it is not an expensive tax to collect."

Next week we will discuss an interesting point about the sales tax, growing out of the charge of extra cent on each dollar's worth of goods sold.

H., is 10181.3 pounds of milk and 483.1 pounds of butter fat in class AAA.

LAW ON THE FARM

Editor's note: This is the first of a new series of articles which the Cook County Herald plans to print once each week as a matter of interest, service, and information for local farmers and other readers.

Since 1818, when lawmakers of Illinois began enacting laws, no less than 200 acts have been passed dealing in one way or another with the farmer and his problems. A very casual look at some of the subjects reveals crops, weeds, domestic animals, fences, horses tails, insects, diseases of plants and animals, drainage, labor, foods, forestry, seeds, fertilizers, horseshoers, landlords and tenants, liens, health and soil conservation as things about which legislation has been enacted.

Some of these laws concern farmers indirectly, some apply only to particular individuals, but others are of direct significance to any farmer who desires to keep well informed about facts which may affect his business. In succeeding articles of this series, laws of this latter character will be discussed.

It is recognized, of course, that Federal laws have come to play an important role in the lives of farm people. Such laws operate mainly in connection with agricultural programs of one kind or another and do not affect farm people personally. For that reason they will not be discussed.

Most people know that our State laws are made by a house of representatives composed of 153 members and a state senate composed of 51; that they are administered by the governor and ten executive departments—including a department of agriculture—and that they are interpreted judicially by county, circuit, and appellate courts, and by one supreme court. Fewer people know, however, that the lawmakers are aided by a very efficient Legislative Reference Bureau and by a newly formed Illinois Legislative Council which is in a position to do a great deal of making the laws better.

Anyone interested in Federal and Illinois laws relating to agriculture may secure a comprehensive subject-matter index in mimeographed form, by writing to the College of Agriculture, Urbana, Illinois.

Copies of separate acts of the Illinois Legislature may be obtained by writing to the Secretary of State, Springfield. Some Federal acts are available at the Government Printing Office, Washington. All the laws of Illinois are in a single volume publication entitled "Illinois Revised Statutes."

For information about it correspond with the Burdette Smith Company, Chicago. All the laws of the United States are in a single volume publication entitled, "The Code of the Laws of the United States of America." For information about it correspond with the Government Printing Office, Washington. Both of these publications are in most large libraries.

"Sure, the FARMALL'S the Best Bet...and You Know They've Cut the Price, too!"

SIXTEEN YEARS have passed since the original FARMALL first took its place on the farms of America. In those sixteen years the FARMALL System has revolutionized tractor design and farming methods. It was natural that many of the manufacturers during this period should also begin to build tractors of the FARMALL type. They had to—farmers themselves settled that by demanding FARMALLS.

In the meantime, the original FARMALL has been completely transformed. Every year has brought valuable improvements, but the time-proved FARMALL principle is unchanged. The greatest all-purpose tractor value on the market is today's FARMALL. Come in—let's talk FARMALL advantages as applied to your own farm.

No Other Tractor Brings You
All of These Features:

News From Springfield

by BERNICE T. VAN DER VRIES Representative 7th District General Assembly of Illinois

The working session of the House began on Monday night and ended at noon on Thursday. This represented the longest period of work for the House since the 61st Session opened in January and was probably due to the fact that many of the members were going to Urbana for the biennial visit of the legislature to the University of Illinois.

The Senate had fewer working days but held a midnight session Tuesday night.

About a third of the time in the House was consumed in arguments over the $80,000 appropriation requested by the Highway Department for the examination of applicants for a driver's license who from their applications appeared to need an examination. The number of persons having physical handicaps appears to be much larger than was anticipated.

The original appropriation which was requested was $100,000. The Republicans first made a protest because the bill was not itemized. To meet the protest the director of the Public Works department of which the Highway division is a part, cut the appropriation to $80,000, but submitted a very brief itemization.

Both Parties Split

In the final voting, the Republicans split as well as the Democrats. For the most part, however, the Republicans like myself who had worked for a driver's license in the previous session, supported the appropriation bill in order to be consistent in support of driver's licenses. Other Republicans who had voted against driver's license bills voted against the appropriation and still another group of the same party voted adversely for economy reasons and for lack of itemization in the bill. The Democratic members were divided in their votes for factional reasons. After two attempts to secure the necessary 102 votes the bill failed to pass.

The highway division will probably solve the problem by using highway police between now and July 1 when the regular appropriation becomes available.

Stormy Weather Ahead

The debate on Tuesday lasted until 2 o'clock with no recess for lunch. Immediately after adjournment committee sessions opened and practically every member was carrying five or six committee notices for meetings all at the same time.

who has been residing at the Arlington Heights Rest Home several months, passed away Tuesday morning, May 2. He had been in failing health for some time and after receiving word in March, of the death of a sister, he gradually grew worse. $270,000 Awaits Winners of Stakes At Arlington Park

Eight stakes, with a gross value estimated at $185,000 and added money of $86,000, will be the feature of a brilliant Arlington Park meeting of 30 days opening here on June 26, it was announced by Otto W. Lehmann, president of the Arlington Park Jockey Club Thursday.

In announcing the conditions for the Arlington stakes Lehmann set the closing date for nominations for five of them as Thursday, June 1. Three of the eight stakes — the Arlington Futurity, the Lassie Stakes and Classic Stakes — closed earlier.

The progression of stake features will roll up in crescendo of importance from opening day to the final week of the meeting when the $55,000 gross Classic Stakes, premier American mid-summer race for 3-year olds on July 22; the $60,000 gross Arlington Futurity, for 2-year olds, and the $7,500 gross Arlington Handicap for older horses, on July 29, will strike the climax.

Highlighting the swank north-side meeting will be the eleventh renewal of the Classic Stakes on July 22. The list of 77 nominations holds the names of virtually every ranking 2-year old in America including Technician, Chaldean, Johnstown, Porter's Mite, Eighty Three, Benefactor, Ciencia, Inscoldo, Impound, Day Off and Sun Lever. Inaugurating "futures" conditions this year the Classic will be one of the most handsome endowed races for 3-year olds in this country.

As the headquarters of the Arlington Park Jockey Club were removed from downtown Chicago to the track on April 22 all nominations for the five stakes closing on June 1 are to be sent to Arlington Park Jockey Club, Arlington Heights. Stake blanks will be distributed to horsemen throughout the country within a few days said Lehmann.

same time. Few committees had quorums because of this situation except the appropriations committee which held its meeting on the floor of the House because of the large number of people who were present to hear the debate and the vote on House Bill 599. This was the bill which increased State Aid to the schools and which provides for the financing of the pension bill (H. B. 499) for teachers outside Chicago. After a discussion the vote was taken on motions to lay the motion on the table which recommended that the bill "do not pass," on the original motion and finally on the motion that the bill "do pass," the motion for non-passage having been defeated. Many members in other committees were brought to the galleries to shout their votes down to the clerk. After each roll call they would dash back to their respective committees only to be called back again. Finally after the vote was announced, a vote strongly in favor of the bill, Representative Boyle raised the point of a quorum but Chairman Green ruled that the vote just taken showed a quorum. Naturally, when such a fight on a bill occurs in a committee there is stormy weather ahead on the floor.

Expect Flood of Bills

Introduction of bills is now limited to Tuesdays for the remainder of the session. There will be a heavy importing on next Tuesday as every member I know has bills to be introduced.

I cannot close without a brief description of our visit to the University of Illinois.

Faculty members were in Springfield on Thursday morning to make arrangements for transportation and assignments to hotels of members and their families. The opening event was a dinner in the Woman's building on Thursday night with the president, the deans of the various schools, trustees and many department heads present. Entertainment was provided by the Men's Glee club. After numerous introductions and speeches, a presentation of the needs of the university, which is now a plant worth $31,000,000, with 17,000 students, was pictorially presented on a screen by Lloyd Morey, the comptroller.

To Dedicate Field House May 28th

Arlington Heights new field house will be officially dedicated Sunday afternoon, May 28. Elmer Crane and George Glaw are in charge of the program for that day. The first public event to be held in the building after its dedication, will be the district Legion meeting on May 31. This will be followed on June 10 and 11 by the annual flower show of the local garden club. The pool will be opened for the season on June 15.

The park board anticipate many requests for the building, but has not yet set up the rules that will govern the use of the structure.

The park will officially open for the season Sunday when the Redwings will meet Chicago colored Cardinals. With the enlarged facilities for ball players and the general public, record breaking crowds are expected to attend the games of this club throughout the season. The Redwings are rather proud of the home grounds. A softball schedule has not yet been announced, but with facilities of two fields for that purpose, a full summer schedule is almost certain.

Arlington Heights park project is one of the prize WPA projects in the Chicago area and that government agency will have a part in the dedicatory program the last of the month. It is the hope of the committee to have all civic organizations of Arlington Heights have a voice in arranging the dedicatory program.

Palatine Lions Ask Action By Village Board

Ask General Cleanup Of Business District

A delegation from the Palatine Lions club called on the Palatine board Monday evening and asked the cooperation of the board on several matters of importance to Palatine.

Among the things discussed were adequate parking spaces to take the all day parked cars off the main streets, painting of the depot, improvement of the railroad crossings, removal of garbage dumps, filling in of unsightly holes and a general clean-up campaign.

The board received the suggestions of the Lions committee in fine spirit and promised hearty cooperation in the proposed improvements.

A parking ordinance which has been discussed before will again be revived and the judiciary committee of which trustee E. R. Prout is chairman, will hold a meeting and public hearing on the advisability of such an ordinance on Monday evening, May 15, at the village board room.

Anyone interested in the parking problem can be heard at this meeting of the committee.

Loses Horses During An Hour Absence; Found Tied In Forest Preserve

Two horses, one of them worth $600, disappeared from the farm of Al Haseman, Elia and Dundee rds., last Friday evening, while Haseman had left them for about an hour. He discovered fence wires cut and started a search in the neighborhood until five hours later, they were found in the forest preserve, tied to a tree.

Pigs Discover A New Home By Herald Want-Ad

Moving week was no task at all for thirteen little pigs at the farm of Fred Kraus. It wasn't twelve hours before they decided to leave the farm on Foundry and Elmhurst rds. when presto there were almost as many men as the pigs numbered, who had come to answer their plea for a new home. But let them speak for themselves:

"It was on a Wednesday when Mr. Kraus told us that our lease had expired, and it was time that we paid for our three months table fare. Mr. Kraus was very nice about it and asked what he could do for us.

"We talked it over and came to the conclusion that the BEST and ONLY way to find another friend was to put an advertisement in the Cook County Herald. Ferdinand the Bull and all the rest of the barnyard friends had found their new homes through the Herald and newspapers, and so we pooled our ice cream money, 45 cents, and Mr. Kraus put the ad in the paper.

"Before Thursday went by, Mr. Kraus had all kinds of callers, the first one accepting Mr. Kraus' offer without even turning around and having a look at us. He said he had used 'Paddock's want-ads' before."

District No. 58 Drops Plan of Consolidation

The patrons of school district No. 58, located on Route 58 (Golf rd.) voted against consolidation Saturday night with any of the neighboring school districts. County Superintendent, Noble J. Puffer who attended the meeting in an advisory capacity, agreed with the school patrons that from an economic standpoint, a continuation of the present procedure permitted a big saving in tax costs to the landowners.

At the present time the children of the district attend neighboring schools, their tuition being paid by their own school district. State school authorities agree that the district is not jeopardizing its existence even if its school is closed as long as a yearly tax is levied and the children are receiving a proper education.

The only adjoining district which is favored by the people of District 58 is district 59, a two room school on Higgins rd., which has a tax rate four times that of district 58. If the latter district united with any other of the adjoining schools a new bldg. would probably be necessary in those districts with accompanying high school tax rate.

Twin Calves At Plote Farm

August Hackbart came to town with a new story the other day. A cow at the Elmer Plote farm had given birth to twin calves and August reported that both youngsters were fine normal animals and doing well.

With people always wild to see the unusual, August and some of the folks at the farm are contemplating a tour of the fairs to exhibit the twins.

Watch Out, Or The Cops Will Get You

Owners of autos and trucks have often learned their lesson because they had failed to procure the proper state licenses on time or had neglected to purchase city vehicle tag, but now it is the drivers of these cars that must "watch out or the cops will get you."

Regardless of previously published stories about an extension of time being granted for purchase of drivers license, May 1 was the zero hour and commencing next week, state officers will start a drive on drivers' licenses. The state only asks that the judge assess a $7 fine for lack of 1939 license plate, and the villages may only ask a fine of $2 against those who have not purchased their vehicle tags, but to drive a car without a drivers' license is now a serious offense and fines are supposed to be from $10 up.

Motorists stopped for speeding discover that if they have not their drivers' license, the latter is the more serious offense and will draw the heaviest fine.

All police officers, village, county and state are required to pick up the drivers' license of those participating in accidents. Notations of such arrests are made on the back of the license. The man who arrested frequently will soon be unable to drive a car.

Legion To Announce Youth Day Parade In Radio Broadcast

The annual youth parade and convention sponsored by the ninth district of the American Legion to be held May 21 in the northwest section of Chicago, will be the subject of a fifteen minute broadcast over station WHFC this Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

C. L. Griffith of Arlington Heights will be master of ceremonies and he will introduce Joseph O'Brien, commander of the ninth district, who will discuss the youth day program and purposes. "Buddy" Weisman of Palatine, who recently won second place in a Morris B. Sachs amateur show, will sing a few selections. The youngsters will appear in the 8th street theater June 17, in the national barn dance program.

Victor A. Pecchia, of Arlington Heights, is chairman of this year's youth convention and parade. He is the junior vice commander of the ninth district. Mr. Griffith is chairman of the music and entertainment committee of the ninth district.

Residents of Palatine and Arlington Heights are urged to tune in this Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock and listen to the Legion broadcast.

Council Greet Newly Elected Aldermen

Routine Business Makes Short Work At Board Meeting

C. L. Griffith and Theodor Studtmann, newly elected board members, took their places around the council table Monday night, while a fair sized crowd filled the village hall to witness the induction. Appointment of committeemen will be settled at a special meeting of the board Monday night.

The new members were called to the front after the old board adjourned since Mr. Griffith, in his "inaugural" address, stressed the fact that, during his campaign, he had made no promises to party faction, or anyone else, and, therefore, owed nothing. He said:

"I have promised nothing except to cooperate with the board and give my best to the interests of the public and the community."

Studtmann replied with "I second the motion of Mr. Griffith" and the newly constituted village board became a reality. Trustee Adam was not present.

Following adjournment of the new board to Monday evening, all members present went into a conference to discuss committee assignments and appointments, which will be announced Monday evening.

The last acts of the old board covered merely routine matters. The treasurer told the board that the past fiscal year had been a good one for receipt of general taxes, which amounted to $26,000. The village now has a credit of $3,328 with the state highway department.

The ages of all members of the fire department have been filed with the clerk who will check those who are eligible for retirement.

With the arrival of spring, accidents began to take place according to the police department. There have been five accidents the past 32 days with two personal injuries.

Following the adjournment of the old board, the clerk read a letter from George Klehm, which outlined the special civic activities in which he has had a part during the quarter of a century that he has served on the board.

The Wheeling board of trustees passed the necessary resolution at its May meeting Monday night to start the machinery in motion for the improvement of Wille ave. from Dundee to Highland and Center st., from Milwaukee to Wille. The state has recently accepted these streets as arterial highways on which $2500 is authorized to be expended for their improvement.

The funds will come from gas tax money held by the state highway department to the credit of the village.

Engineer W. F. Turpin was present Monday evening and was authorized to prepare the necessary plans. The exact nature of the improvement depends on an inspection of the present condition of the streets by Mr. Turpin and the street committee. Proposals for the work are expected to be ready for advertisement by next Monday night when an adjourned meeting of the board will be held.

With Mayor Hans Schmidt in the chair, the old board finished up the business of that body in short order. The regular reports were accepted and the last official act was the declaration of the election result. Mr. Johnson, retiring member of the board, himself made the motion that Marshall Balle, Theo. Pieper and Frank Utpedal be declared elected.

The chief business of the new board was the fixing of the yearly tavern license fee. After considerable discussion and consultation with the attorney, the board decided that the fee of $175 remain at its present figure for one more year. Action on a higher fee should have been taken prior to April 30, stated attorney Woolster.

Due to delay in canvassing of ballots, Mayor Schmidt had been unable to have his committee appointments ready that evening and he asked an adjournment to next Monday night when appointments will be made.

Fred Dehnes, Glenview, Back From Western Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dehne, of Glenview, returned Saturday from a four months visit with friends in California and New Mexico. Although the trip was an enjoyable one, as Mr. Dehne enjoys anything he does, they were saddened by the death of Henry Maierhoff, 82 years old, a native of Northbrook, who had been living in Long Beach, California, for the past twenty years. The Dehnes spent the last month of Mr. Maierhoff's illness at his bedside and helped to make his last days the happier for him.

Mr. Maierhoff, it will be remembered, visited his friends in Northbrook and Glenview two years ago and celebrated his 80th birthday. Mr. Dehne reported that he often spoke of the good times and friends he enjoyed, not only in his last visit but during his sixty years he spent in this region. He passed away March 1 in a hospital in Long Beach.

The Dehnes also stopped at Albuquerque, New Mexico, where they visited with the Sternberg family, who are also of Northbrook. They were given a royal welcome there, in the words of Mr. Dehne. They were present when Albuquerque had its unusual cold snap and a four inch snow fall.

Although there is nothing like California weather and oranges, too, Mr. Dehne said, he came back in time to help Glenview rural fire association celebrate its annual dance May 20.

April Building Permits Are $54,000

Skill Machines, Punch Boards Are No More

Was one of the newly elected aldermen responsible for the surprise raid Tuesday afternoon of the Arlington Heights police, which entered taverns, drug stores and other places of business removing ten "skill" machines, little brothers to the much famed slot machines? Really, the Herald is not certain, but a little bird has whispered into the reporter's ear that it was one of the new aldermen who innocently inquired Monday night at a conference session of village board members, "if it were true that there were slot machines still in Arlington Heights." Complaints of parents centered around playing of penny machines by children.

Several of the older members replied in the negative, but the suggestion of slot machines was enough to send the police department into a huddle and lo and behold they found a total of ten. Some of them are only penny machines, but all of them were declared in the same class and it did not take long before Chief Skoog started on his collection tour about the business district.

The machines with their cash are locked up in the vault at the treasurer's office. The next day they were joined by a lot of punch boards.

Last Chance To Register

This week the registration books are open at the offices of the village and town clerks.

This will be the last chance to register or change your address from one precinct to another before the judicial election in June.

Anyone who has moved from one precinct to another, should make application for a change of address or they will find that they cannot vote.

It Is Still Twelve Taverns In Arlington Heights

The expected rush for additional tavern licenses did not materialize and licenses were granted to the twelve locations previously used for that purpose. Mr. Watson has taken out the license for the Town Pump in his own name.

Arlington's Grand Old Man

GEORGE H. KLEHM

The old timers of Arlington Heights are well acquainted with the community service that George Klehm has given to Arlington of past fifty years. His retirement from the village board Monday, after 23 years of continuous service on that body recalls many of the worth while things that he has done for the village and its schools. No living resident of Arlington Heights has a greater standing monument than Mr. Klehm in the growing things that are all about us.

He is one of the two oldest native residents of this village. His father established Klehm's Nurseries in 1856 and he has devoted his life to growing things. It was his enthusiasm that brought about the introduction of Moline elms to this country — an accomplishment that was recognized by Henry Ford and other prominent men of the U. S. He fathered the introduction of 60,000 Moline elms at the City of Milwaukee, which lays claims to having the finest landscape of any large city. Mr. Klehm took a lot of pleasure in replacing old trees in Arlington especially around school grounds.

While a member of the grade school board he was instrumental in the purchase of ground where the present new school building stands.

Mr. Klehm was on the high school board twelve years. At its establishment, he urged the purchase of 25 acres, ten of which to be used as an experimental tract under the guidance of the state department of agriculture, which would furnish one instructor free to the high school.

Mr. Klehm is certain that fruit

can be grown in this part of Illinois that equals that grown in any part of the United States. It was his hope that experimental work by the state would develop fruit growing industry here.

The original landscape plans of the high school were made by Mr. Klehm and he furnished all of the trees, shrubs and evergreens free of charge. He also gave the same service to the southside school.

It was as a village alderman that Mr. Klehm gave his greatest contribution to his community, was repeatedly giving and again giving his nursery stock to enhance the beauty of his home town.

A gold watch was presented to him on his 75th birthday in October, 1937, by his fellow officials and village employees.

A small history of municipal events is kept by him in his "little black book," that he is ever ready to present as authority on important data that concerned the village.

Mr. Klehm holds the distinction of having to his credit more years of public service as an official than probably any other man in Cook county. The years total 59 and include 23 years as village trustees, 23 years as member of District 25 School Board, twelve years as member of the high school board and one year as village clerk.

Anything can happen in an election and last month Mr. Klehm was defeated politically for the first time in his life. That defeat was no reflection upon him as a man, or as a public official. He still has many hundreds of loyal friends and admirers. To them he will ever be Arlington's Grand Old Man.

Free Movie And Lecture For Adults Friday Night

Through the interest of Edgar Flentje, who is taking a medical course, a movie showing the cause and death danger of syphilis will be shown at the Lutheran school hall Friday evening, under the sponsorship of the Luther Layman's League. This is a sound film released by government agencies. It is an important subject and under the state law is of vital importance to all young people. All adults are welcome to attend.

Cars Crash, No One Hurt Until Drivers Start Fist Fight

One driver involved in a collision, landed in the Palatine hospital as the result of injuries sustained in a fist fight with the driver of the other car. Sunday evening, D. A. Fiore, of Chicago, was taken to the Community hospital after trying to match blows with Thomas Kisezyk, of Chicago, after their two cars collided on the Northwest highway, near Quentins rd., Palatine.

Judge Behrens Decides Moonlight Makes A Difference

The state police found a Park Ridge contractor and the lady friend parked without lights on the shoulder of the highway Tuesday evening. They took the couple to Judge Behrens at Arlington Heights even if the hour was late. The judge had not forgotten the time when he was young and on the plea of the man that the combination of moonlight and a lovely maid was irresistible, dismissed the case.

The arresting officer admitted that the judge was probably right.

Appointed Supervisor of Wheeling Township, who returned home from hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Two Palatine People Die Of Accident

The death of Mrs. Louis Reuse Friday was the second death as a result of an auto accident April 22 between cars driven by Mrs. Reuse and Edw. Haenker, both of Palatine. Mr. L. T. Reuse, father-in-law of Mrs. Reuse died April 23. Mrs. Reuse remained in a critical condition at the Community hospital an entire week before internal injuries caused her death April 29.

The funeral was held Sunday at Palatine M. E. church with interment in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Chas. Plate died April 28 at the Community hospital, Palatine, 18 hours after being seriously burned at her farm home southwest of Palatine. She had leaped over a kitchen stove Thursday morning while engaged in preparation of dinner when in some manner a jacket caught fire. She ran outdoors, calling for help of her husband who was on his way to the house. The upper part of her clothing had been burned off her body and there was little hope for her recovery although she was rushed to the hospital.

The funeral was held at the Plum Grove Evangelical church.

Double Parking Of Autos Places Young Boy In Hospital

Craig (Sparky) Baldwin, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Baldwin, dodged around a parked truck on Dunton st., in front of his father's store last Thursday at the same moment that an auto was approaching. There was a scream as the little fellow was hurled to the ground, a front wheel passing over a leg. The car was stopped by its driver "on a dime." The little fellow was picked up by his dad and rushed to Dr. Meisenheimer's office and later to Elmhurst hospital. The only injuries are a broken right leg. Sparky is a courageous little fellow and if good wishes of Arlington Heights friends mean anything, it will not be many weeks when he will again be on his feet.

Sparky is getting along nicely and sends messages to his friends at home every time his mother visits him.

The only blame, if there is a blame can be placed on the fact that double parking existed on the street at the time. Sparky had no opportunity to see the approaching car. The same thing could have happened to any child.

Dog Brings Aid Of Family To Stubby Meyer

A dog is man's best friend no matter if the animal is a "Duke's mixture," says Stubby Meyer since early Friday morning. Mr. Meyer had started up the stairs from his tavern, when he lost consciousness. The dog was on the other side of the tavern door, but seemed to sense that something was wrong. His frantic barking awoke the family who found Mr. Meyer at the foot of the stairs. He was confined to the bed two days, but is now able to be about.

Letters From Europe Bring Echoes Of War

Residents of Arlington Heights are receiving letters from relatives in Europe telling of the preparations for war that are being taken over there. One Arlington Heights business man received word this week that all of his relatives had been called to the colors in defense of Rumania. In this case the relatives are Germans who in reality are part of the minority being forced to act against their natural countrymen.

Electors of Wheeling township will convene at an adjourned session of the annual town meeting next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock for the purpose of hearing a report and recommendations of the citizens committee and the reading of a new audit of the books of Chas. F. Grandt, who vacated his office two weeks ago.

Gilbert Klehm has been appointed by the town board to the position of township supervisor and will assume the duties of that office as soon as his health permits. He returned home Tuesday from an Evanston hospital.

The election of Mr. Klehm occurred Friday evening when the town board met as a board of appointment for that purpose. A notice was received by the board that Gilbert Klehm had resigned as justice of the peace and as a member of the board of auditors. Attorney Zalesky, supposedly representing Chas. F. Grandt, was present, but said very little.

The new audit of township books, bringing the audit of last year down to the time that Mr. Grandt vacated the office was presented, but was immediately ordered sealed for presentation next Tuesday directly to the town electors.

The chief purpose of the adjourned meeting is consideration of the audit and what procedure should be taken to indemnify the township for any shortages that may exist.

The first adjournment of the town meeting was held April 11 when the citizens committee presented a list of recommendations, to which Chas. F. Grandt, who was present, affixed his signature, thereby expressing his willingness to abide by them. Since that time, Mr. Grandt disappeared after apparently surrendering his office by turning over his books.

This action was taken by Mr. Klehm will accept the recommendations of the citizens committee which provide:

Countersignature of town clerk on all checks.

Approval of all bills by auditors before their payment.

Maintenance of proper set of books.

Preparation of proper reports for publication.

Appointment of relief investigator to be made by board of auditors.

Separation of township and personal bank accounts.

Township to be protected by surety bond.

The township relief has been handled under the direction of Howard Helm, assisted by Mrs. Chas. F. Grandt and Esther Dieber. Payment of outstanding orders, held by local merchants will probably be started as soon as 1939 tax warrants can be sold.

Cut Farm Values 10 Per Cent

A blanket reduction of 10% in the valuation of all farms in Cook county has been ordered by assessor John S. Clark.

This action on the part of the county assessors follows rather uproarious meetings of the county land valuers with the committees from the various townships and a visit paid to Mr. Clark by the land valuation committee of the Cook County Farm Bureau.

Dan Bergman, Jr., of Palatine, is chairman of the Farm Bureau committee on land valuation. The committee, like the various township committees, submitted prices of actual farm sales the vast majority of which were for far less than the assessed valuation of the land.

Evidently all the storm raised against high valuations had some effect, for following the conference with the farm bureau committee, Mr. Clark ordered the blanket 10% reduction on farm valuations.

Herman Tesch Hit By Chicago Motorist

Herman Tesch, former janitor at grade school, is confined to his bed with injuries to his head and fracture of a small bone sustained when he was hit by a car at Dunton and the Northwest highway Friday night. The driver of the car assisted the police in taking Mr. Tesch to a doctor.

We again extend a hearty welcome to four more families who moved into the new section, or third addition to Prospect Heights, and they are Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harpell, on Clarendon ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Louis Wilcox, Clarendon ave.; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lohr, Clarendon ave.; also Mr. and Mrs. Gerald D. Colley, also on Clarendon ave.

During the month of April nineteen families moved into the community, which is an increase of seven more than April of last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Williams entertained Mr. Floyd E. Howe, of Wonder Lake, over the weekend, and as usual he had a very pleasant visit with the folks.

Since Monday was the opening of the fishing season, Ed. Miller, Macdonald rd., drove up to Fox Lake, accompanied by his father and his business partner, Mr. DeMott, where all three spent a very pleasant morning. The men caught enough fish for all three families.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gebhardt, also Mr. and Mrs. Don Ewing of Chicago, were Sunday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayne Bowman on Olive st. All had an enjoyable time at supper, playing cards and reminiscing since they all attended college together.

We regret that Mrs. Miller has been suffering from a very bad cold, which has settled in her throat, and makes her feel pretty miserable. We wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Fern Blake, of Oak Park, visited her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. William Stegman on Elmhurst rd. on Sunday, and returned home with a Persian kitten, which was obtained from someone in the community.

Will, Jr., and Marvin Stegman are at present playing foster parents to five baby rabbits. They are having a great time feeding them with a baby bottle.

Mrs. Nan Rauken drove up to Lake Delton, Wisconsin, last Thursday accompanied by Mrs. John Hupp, formerly of Long Grove, Ill., who will now make her home at Lake Delton. After visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Timme, at Lake Delton, Mrs. Rauken drove down to Barraboo, and visited with Mr. and Mrs. George Marquardt. After a very enjoyable visit, Mrs. Rauken returned by train on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell visited with Jim and Anne Nielsen on Saturday, and as usual had a very pleasant afternoon.

On Sunday afternoon, Jim and Anne Nielsen entertained their niece and her new husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy DeVoe of Chicago. The folks enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon and evening. Jim's brother and family from the south side of Chicago, were also guests on Sunday.

Mr. Allord, proprietor of the Royal Blue store, advises us that he is now carrying a complete line of flower and vegetable seeds, along with the sprouts, fresh fruits and vegetables. Don't forget the store is open from 7:30 a. m. to 8:00 p. m. Monday through Friday, and from 9:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. on Saturday, and from 10:00 a. m. to 6:00 p. m. on Sunday.

Since the community has grown so fast we will try to get a couple of Who's Who in each week.

The first Who's Who will be a family who moved into the new section October 1 of last year from Chicago. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. Wayne Bowman, and Edward Alan, their nine year old son, who are located on Olive st. They moved to Chicago eight years ago from Portland, Oregon, where they met and were married. They celebrated their twelfth wedding anniversary last New Year's day.

Mr. Bowman is supervisor of adjustments at Marshall Field & Co., where he has been for the past two years. Previous to going with Fields, he was an instructor of history and civics. Mrs. Bowman is office manager of the western branch of the Topics Publishing

Co., and has been with that firm for the past two and a half years. Mr. Bowman likes to read, listen to the radio, golf and is interested in civic affairs. Mrs. Bowman prefers home managing to office managing, but at present is kept very busy doing both. She likes to knit, hook rugs, hike and make garden. Eddie has a great interest in art work and attended classes at the Art Institute about a year ago, at which time he had some of his work on exhibit. His latest creation is a map of Prospect Heights, of which he is mighty proud. He is kept busy when not inventing something or painting, caring for Rex, the new German police dog which was given him for his birthday on March 6. He will also have a garden of his own to tend this summer.

The second Who's Who will be a family who just moved into the community. They are Mr. and Mrs. Hans Nelson, who moved into their home on Elmhurst ave. on April 24, from Chicago.

Mr. Nelson is employed as a switchboard repair man for the Illinois Bell Telephone company, and has been with them for the past seventeen years.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson enjoy playing pinocle. Mr. Nelson is also quite a sightseer and enjoys attending his Masonic lodge. Mrs. Nelson likes to crochet and make garden.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Nelson are Americans of Norwegian ancestry. The Nelsons have no children, or pets, so far.

It Happened Here

The Awakening

Morning! The wide blue heaven Arches the good earth, brown and bare;
To the broad fields a subtle veil is given
That trembles in the beady air.
There is a budding in the tender dawn,
A budding by the wooded creek—
Lo! As we look, soft greens are drawn
Over the woods we seek.
Trees feel their sap thro every fiber rise,
From the blind roots that grope
To the bare twigs that lace the skies
And swell with nascent hope.
The creek above its stones has heard
The bluejay's ringing shout;
Now flowers that sleep where leaves are stirred
Come join our merry rout!

Red Wings Play Chicago Nine This Sunday

Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in Recreation Park, the empire will shout "play ball" and the Arlington Redwings will open the 1939 baseball season. The Chicago Cardinals, one of the better colored teams from Chicago, will be the opponents.

Last year this same club helped Arlington open the season and put up such a great stand that it required a desperate nine inning rally by the Redwings to snatch a victory by the narrow margin of 5-4.

The Chicago Cardinals are a firmly established team being well organized, carrying over their best players from year to year thereby assuring themselves of a high class club right from the start of the year.

From what manager Page has heard at the Mid-west League meeting, the Cardinals are stronger and intend to take the winners prize this time. Their main improvement is a new pitcher, who if better than the one of last year, may give Arlington hitters trouble. This will be the tenth year of the Redwings and the third year they are playing in Recreation Park which is believed to be the best semi-pro ball field around Chicago. Only a few men on the present team were on the original club during the first few years.

The club has been built into a strong semi-pro outfit made up of practically all home town boys.

GOOD THOUGHTS

If a man is unhappy, this must be his own fault: for God made all men to be happy. —Epictetus.

Real happiness is cheap enough, yet how dearly we pay for its counterfeit. —Hoshea Ballou.
May I ever realize that I do not give to get, but that my labor in the Master's vineyard is a joy unspeakable. —George C. Duff.

Think not therefore that thou hast found true peace, if thou feel no heaviness; nor that all is well when thou art vexed with no adversary. Wherein then, O Lord, doth it consist? In giving thyself up with all they heart to the divine will, not seeking thine own interest either in great matters or in small, either in time or in eternity. —Thomas a' Kempis.

Happiness is spiritual, born of Truth and Love. —Mary Baker Eddy.

Both young people are from Des Plaines, Beulah being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hixon of Walnut ave.

To Dedicate Field House May 28th

Arlington Heights new field house will be officially dedicated Sunday afternoon, May 28. Elmer Crane and George Glow are in charge of the program for that day. The first public event to be held in the building after its dedication, will be the district Legion meeting on May 31. This will be followed on June 10 and 11 by the annual flower show of the local garden club. The pool will be opened for the season on June 15.

The park board anticipates many requests for the building, but has not yet set up the rules that will govern the use of the structure.

The park will officially open for the season Sunday when the Redwings will meet Chicago colored Cardinals. With the enlarged facilities for ball players and the general public, record breaking crowds are expected to attend the games of this club throughout the season. The Redwings are rather proud of the home grounds. A softball schedule has not yet been announced, but with facilities of two fields for that purpose, a full summer schedule is almost certain.

Arlington Heights park project is one of the prize WPA projects in the Chicago area and that government agency will have a part in the dedicatory program the last of the month. It is the hope of the committee to have all civic organizations of Arlington Heights have a voice in arranging the dedicatory program.

Palatine Lions Ask Action By Village Board

Ask General Cleanup Of Business District

A delegation from the Palatine Lions club called on the Palatine board Monday evening and asked the cooperation of the board on several matters of importance to Palatine.

Among the things discussed were adequate parking spaces to take the all day parked cars off the Main streets, painting of the depot, improvement of the railroad crossings, removal of garbage dumps, filling in of unsightly holes and a general clean-up campaign.

The board received the suggestions of the Lions committee in fine spirit and promised hearty cooperation in the proposed improvements.

A parking ordinance which has been discussed before will again be revived and the judiciary committee of which trustee E. R. Prout is chairman, will hold a meeting and public hearing on the advisability of such an ordinance on Monday evening, May 15, at the village board room.

Anyone interested in the parking problem can be heard at this meeting of the committee.

Two horses, one of them worth $600, disappeared from the farm of Al Haseman, Elia and Dundee rds., last Friday evening, while Haseman had left them for about an hour. He discovered fence wires cut and started a search in the neighborhood until five hours later, they were found in the forest preserve, tied to a tree.

INFANT WELFARE CLINIC

The Arlington Heights Infant Welfare Clinic, will be held Tuesday from 1-3 p. m. at the Health center, village hall.

Pigs Discover A New Home By Herald Want-Ad

Moving week was no task at all for thirteen little pigs at the farm of Fred Kraus. It wasn't twelve hours before they decided to leave the farm on Foundry and Elmhurst rds., when presto there were almost as many men as the pigs numbered, who had come to answer their plea for a new home. But let them speak for themselves:

"It was on a Wednesday when Mr. Kraus told us that our lease had expired, and it was time that we paid for our three months table fare. Mr. Kraus was very nice about it and asked what he could do for us.

"We talked it over and came to the conclusion that the BEST and ONLY way to find another friend was to put an advertisement in the Cook County Herald. Ferdinand the Bull and all the rest of the barnyard friends had found their new homes through the Herald and newspapers, and so we pooled our ice cream money, 45 cents, and Mr. Kraus put the ad in the paper.

"Before Thursday went by, Mr. Kraus had all kinds of callers, the first one accepting Mr. Kraus' offer without even turning around and having a look at us. He said he had used 'Paddock's want-ads' before."

Council Greet Newly Elected Aldermen

Routine Business Makes Short Work At Board Meeting

C. L. Griffith and Theodor Studtmann, newly elected board members, took their places around the council table Monday night, while a fair sized crowd filled the village hall to witness the induction. Appointment of committeemen will be settled at a special meeting of the board Monday night.

The new members were called to the front after the old board adjourned since Mr. Griffith, in his "inaugural" address, stressed the fact that, during his campaign, he had made no promises to party faction, or anyone else, and, therefore, owed nothing. He said:

"I have promised nothing except to cooperate with the board and give my best to the interests of the public and the community."

Studtmann replied with "I second the motion of Mr. Griffith" and the newly constituted village board became a reality. Trustee Adam was not present.

Following adjournment of the new board to Monday evening, all members present went into a conference to discuss committee assignments and appointments, which will be announced Monday evening.

The last acts of the old board covered merely routine matters. The treasurer told the board that the past fiscal year had been a good one for receipt of general taxes, which amounted to $26,000. The village now has a credit of $3,328 with the state highway department.

The ages of all members of the fire department have been filed with the clerk who will check those who are eligible for retirement.

With the arrival of spring, accidents began to take place according to the police department. There have been five accidents the past 32 days with two personal injuries.

Following the adjournment of the old board, the clerk read a letter from George Klehm, which outlined the special civic activities in which he has had a part during the quarter of a century that he has served on the board.

Wheeling To Improve Streets With State Gas Tax Money

The Wheeling board of trustees passed the necessary resolution at its May meeting Monday night to start the machinery in motion for the improvement of Wille ave. from Dundee to Highland and Center st., from Milwaukee to Wille. The state has recently accepted these streets as arterial highways on which $2500 is authorized to be expended for their improvement. The funds will come from gas tax money held by the state highway department to the credit of the village.

Engineer W. F. Turpin was present Monday evening and was authorized to prepare the necessary plans. The exact nature of the improvement depends on an inspection of the present condition of the streets by Mr. Turpin and the street committee. Proposals for the work are expected to be ready for advertisement by next Monday night when an adjourned meeting of the board will be held.

With Mayor Hans Schmidt in the chair, the old board finished up the business of that body in short order. The regular reports were accepted and the last official act was the declaration of the election result. Mr. Johnson, retiring member of the board, himself made the motion that Marshall Balling, Theo. Pieper and Frank Utpdale be declared elected.

The chief business of the new board was the fixing of the yearly tavern license fee. After considerable discussion and consultation with the attorney, the board decided that the fee of $175 remain at its present figure for one more year. Action on a higher fee should have been taken prior to April 30, stated attorney Woolster.

Due to delay in canvassing of ballots, Mayor Schmidt had been unable to have his committee appointments ready that evening and he asked an adjournment to next Monday night when appointments will be made.

Fred Dehnes, Glenview, Back From Western Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dehne, of Glenview, returned Saturday from a four months visit with friends in California and New Mexico. Although the trip was an enjoyable one, as Mr. Dehne enjoys anything he does, they were saddened by the death of Henry Maierhoff, 82 years old, a native of Northbrook, who had been living in Long Beach, California, for the past twenty years. The Dehnes spent the last month of Mr. Maierhoff's illness at his bedside and helped to make his last days the happier for him.

Mr. Maierhoff, it will be remembered, visited his friends in Northbrook and Glenview two years ago and celebrated his 80th birthday. Mr. Dehne reported that he often spoke of the good times and friends he enjoyed, not only in his last visit but during his sixty years he spent in this region. He passed away March 1 in a hospital in Long Beach.

The Dehnes also stopped at Albuquerque, New Mexico, where they visited with the Sternberg family, who are also of Northbrook. They were given a royal welcome there, in the words of Mr. Dehne. They were present when Albuquerque had its unusual cold snap and a four inch snow fall.

Although there is nothing like California weather, and oranges, too, Mr. Dehne said, he came back in time to help Glenview rural fire association celebrate its annual dance May 20.

April Building Permits Are $54,000

April has been a good month for building in Arlington Heights. Permits were issued by Paul Taage, building commissioner for $54,000. Included were five new homes. Alterations totaled $2,400.

Arlington's Grand Old Man

GEORGE H. KLEHM

The old timers of Arlington Heights are well acquainted with the community service that George Ford and other prominent men of past fifty years. His retirement from the village board Monday, after 23 years of continuous service on that body recalls many of the worth while things that he has done for the village and its schools. No living resident of Arlington Heights has a greater standing among the community than Mr. Klehm in the growing things that are all about us.

He is one of the two oldest native residents of this village. His father established Klehm's Nurseries in 1856 and he has devoted his life to growing things. It was his enthusiasm that brought about the introduction of Moline elms to this country — an accomplishment that was recognized by Henry Ford and other prominent men of the U. S. He fathered the introduction of 60,000 Moline elms at the City of Milwaukee, which lays claims to having the finest landscape of any large city. Mr. Klehm took a lot of pleasure in replacing old trees in Arlington especially around school grounds.

While a member of the grade school board he was instrumental in the purchase of ground where the present new school building stands.

Mr. Klehm was on the high school board twelve years. At its establishment, he urged the purchase of 25 acres, ten of which to be used as an experimental tract under the guidance of the state department of agriculture, which would furnish one instructor free to the high school.

Mr. Klehm is certain that fruit

Skill Machines, Punch Boards Are No More

Was one of the newly elected aldermen responsible for the surprise raid Tuesday afternoon of the Arlington Heights police, which entered taverns, drug stores and other places of business removing ten "skill" machines, little brothers to the much famed slot machines? Really, the Herald is not certain, but a little bird has whispered into the reporters' ear that it was one of the new aldermen who innocently inquired Monday night at a conference session of village board members, "if it were true that there were slot machines still in Arlington Heights." Complaints of parents centered around playing of penny machines by children.

Several of the older members replied in the negative, but the suggestion of slot machines was enough to send the police department into a huddle and to and behold they found a total of ten. Some of them are only penny machines, but all of them were declared in the same class and it did not take long before Chief Skoog started on his collection tour about the business district.

The machines with their cash are locked up in the vault at the treasurer's office. The next day they were joined by a lot of punch boards.

Last Chance To Register

This week the registration books are open at the offices of the village and town clerks.

This will be the last chance to register or change your address from one precinct to another before the judicial election in June.

Anyone who has moved from one precinct to another, should make application for a change of address or they will find that they cannot vote.

It Is Still Twelve Taverns In Arlington Heights

The expected rush for additional tavern licenses did not materialize and licenses were granted to the twelve locations previously used for that purpose. Mr. Watson has taken out the license for the Town Pump in his own name.

Double Parking Of Autos Places Young Boy In Hospital

Craig (Sparky) Baldwin, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Baldwin, dodged around a parked truck on Dunton st., in front of his father's store last Thursday at the same moment that an auto was approaching. There was a scream as the little fellow was hurled to the ground, a front wheel passing over a leg. The car was stopped by its driver "on a dime." The little fellow was picked up by his dad and rushed to Dr. Meisenheimer's office and later to Elmhurst hospital. The only injuries are a broken right leg. Sparky is a courageous little fellow and if good wishes of Arlington Heights friends mean anything, it will not be many weeks when he will again be on his feet.

Sparky is getting along nicely and sends messages to his friends at home every time his mother visits him.

The only blame, if there is a blame can be placed on the fact that double parking existed on the street at the time. Sparky had no opportunity to see the approaching car. The same thing could have happened to any child.

Cars Crash, No One Hurt Until Drivers Start Fist Fight

One driver involved in a collision, landed in the Palatine hospital as the result of injuries sustained in a fist fight with the driver of the other car, Sunday evening, D. A. Fiore, of Chicago, was taken to the Community hospital after trying to match blows with Thomas Kieszek, of Chicago, after their two cars collided on the Northwest highway, near Quentins rd., Palatine.

Judge Behrens Decides Moonlight Makes A Difference

The state police found a Park Ridge contractor and the lady friend parked without lights on the shoulder of the highway Tuesday evening. They took the couple to Judge Behrens at Arlington Heights even if the hour was late. The judge had not forgotten the time when he was young and on the plea of the man that the combination of moonlight and a lovely maid was irresistible, dismissed the case.

The arresting officer admitted that the judge was probably right.

GILBERT KLEHM
Appointed Supervisor of Wheeling Township, who returned home from hospital Tuesday afternoon.

Two Palatine People Die Of Accident

The death of Mrs. Louis Reuse Friday was the second death as result of an auto accident April 22 between cars driven by Mrs. Reuse and Edw. Haenker, both of Palatine. Mr. L. T. Reuse, father-in-law of Mrs. Reuse died April 23. Mrs. Reuse remained in a critical condition at the Community hospital an entire week before internal injuries caused her death April 29.

The funeral was held Sunday at Palatine M. E. church with interment in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Chas. Plate died April 28 at the Community hospital, Palatine, 18 hours after being seriously burned at her farm home southwest of Palatine. She had leaned over a kitchen stove Thursday morning while engaged in preparation of dinner when in some manner a jacket caught fire. She ran outdoors, calling for help of her husband who was on his way to the house. The upper part of her clothing had been burned off her body and there was little hope for her recovery although she was rushed to the hospital.

The funeral was held at the Plum Grove Evangelical church.

Dog Brings Aid Of Family To Stubby Meyer

A dog is man's best friend no matter if the animal is a "Duke's mixture," says Stubby Meyer since early Friday morning. Mr. Meyer had started up the stairs from his tavern, when he lost consciousness. The dog was on the other side of the tavern door, but seemed to sense that something was wrong. His frantic barking awoke the family who found Mr. Meyer at the foot of the stairs. He was confined to the bed two days, but is now able to be about.

Letters From Europe Bring Echoes Of War

Residents of Arlington Heights are receiving letters from relatives in Europe telling of the preparations for war that are being taken over there. One Arlington Heights business man received word this week that all of his relatives had been called to the colors in defense of Rumania. In this case the relatives are Germans who in reality are part of the minority being forced to fight against their natural countrymen.

Electors of Wheeling township will convene at an adjourned session of the annual town meeting next Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock for the purpose of hearing a report and recommendations of the citizens committee and the reading of a new audit of the books of Chas. F. Grandt, who vacated his office two weeks ago.

Gilbert Klehm has been appointed by the town board to the position of township supervisor and will assume the duties of that office as soon as his health permits. He returned home Tuesday from an Evanston hospital.

The election of Mr. Klehm occurred Friday evening when the town board met as a board of appointment for that purpose. A notice was received by the board that Gilbert Klehm had resigned as justice of the peace and as a member of the board of auditors. Attorney Zalesky, supposedly representing Chas. F. Grandt, was present, but said very little.

The new audit of township books, bringing the audit of last year down to the time that Mr. Grandt vacated the office was presented, but was immediately ordered sealed for presentation next Tuesday directly to the town electors.

The chief purpose of the adjourned meeting is consideration of the audit and what procedure should be taken to indemnify the township for any shortages that may exist.

The first adjournment of the town meeting was held April 11 when the citizens committee presented a list of recommendations, to which Chas. F. Grandt, who was present, assented by his signature, thereby expressing his willingness to abide by them. Since that time, Mr. Grandt disappeared after apparently surrendering his office by turning over his books.

It is presumed that Mr. Klehm will accept the recommendations of the citizens committee which provide:

—Counter signature of town clerk on all checks.

—Approval of all bills by auditors before their payment.

—Maintenance of proper set of books.

—Preparation of proper reports for publication.

—Appointment of relief investigator to be made by board of auditors.

—Separation of township and personal bank accounts.

—Township to be protected by surety bond.

—The township relief has been handled under the direction of Howard Helm, assisted by Mrs. Chas. F. Grandt and Esther Dieber. Payment of outstanding orders, held by local merchants will probably be started as soon as 1939 tax warrants can be sold.

Cut Farm Values 10 Per Cent

A blanket reduction of 10% in the valuation of all farms in Cook county has been ordered by assessor John S. Clark.

This action on the part of the county assessors followed the rather uproarious meetings of the county land valuator's with the committees from the various townships and a visit paid to Mr. Clark by the land valuation committee of the Cook County Farm Bureau. Dan Bergman, Jr., of Palatine, is chairman of the Farm Bureau committee on land values.

The committee, like the various township committees, submitted prices of actual farm sales the vast majority of which were for far less than the assessed valuation of the land.

Evidently all the storm raised against high farm values had some effect, for following the conference with the farm bureau committee, Mr. Clark ordered the blanket 10% reduction on farm valuations.

Herman Tesch Hit By Chicago Motorist

Herman Tesch, former janitor at grade school, is confined to his bed with injuries to his head and fracture of a small bone sustained when he was hit by a car at Dunton and the Northwest highway Friday night. The driver of the car assisted the police in taking Mr. Tesch to a doctor.

Gilbert Klehm Extends Appreciation To Blood Donors

Only one who has passed thru the experience can realize the thankfulness of a wife and the family when physicians issue a call for blood for transfusion purposes. I was too ill to care very much, but upon my return home I want to publicly express my appreciation to Carl Behrens and his son for the blood they donated and likewise my thanks to the others who made similar offers.

Gilbert Klehm.

Notice

The statement in last week's issue that the Citizens committee unanimously endorsed G. Klehm as supervisor in error. The committee had nothing to do with the appointment. The committee did, however, unanimously recommend T. Studtmann for said vacancy.

The Citizens Committee,

To Dedicate Field House May 28th

Arlington Heights new field house will be officially dedicated Sunday afternoon, May 28. Elmer Crane and George Glaw are in charge of the program for that day. The first public event to be held in the building after its dedication, will be the district Legion meeting on May 31. This will be followed on June 10 and 11 by the annual flower show of the local garden club. The pool will be opened for the season on June 15.

The park board anticipate many requests for the building, but has not yet set up the rules that will govern the use of the structure. The park will officially open for the season Sunday when the Redwings will meet Chicago colored Cardinals. With the enlarged facilities for ball players and the general public, record breaking crowds are expected to attend the games of this club throughout the season. The Redwings are rather proud of the home grounds. A softball schedule has not yet been announced, but with facilities for two fields for that purpose, a full summer schedule is almost certain. Arlington Heights park project is one of the prize WPA projects in the Chicago area and that government agency will have a part in the dedicatory program the last of the month. It is the hope of the committee to have all civic organizations of Arlington Heights have a voice in arranging the dedicatory program.

Special Election On June 27th

A special village election will be held in Palatine on Tuesday, June 27, for the election of one village trustee to fill the vacancy left by the death of trustee-elect Louis T. Reuse.

After receiving an opinion from the village attorney at their meeting Monday night the board passed the necessary ordinance calling the special election and appointing judges and clerks for the election. John Kitson, John H. Wentz and Robert McCabe were appointed as judges and George Vehe and Geo. Snieble as clerks.

Forty days notice of the election are necessary and any aspiring candidates are required to file petitions, the same as for a regular election.

Plan Dinner For Mothers and Daughters At St. Paul's Church

Loses Horses During An Hour Absence; Found Tied In Forest Preserve

Two horses, one of them worth $600, disappeared from the farm of Al Haseman, Elmhurst and Dundee roads, last Friday evening, while Haseman had left them for about an hour. He discovered fence wires cut and started a search in the neighborhood until five hours later, they were found in the forest preserve, tied to a tree.

Pigs Discover A New Home By Herald Want-Ad

Moving week was no task at all for thirteen little pigs at the farm of Fred Kraus. It wasn't twelve hours before they decided to leave the farm on Foundry and Elmhurst roads, when presto there were almost as many men as the pigs numbered, who had come to answer their plea for a new home. But let them speak for themselves:

"It was on a Wednesday when Mr. Kraus told us that our lease had expired, and it was time that we paid for our three months table fare. Mr. Kraus was very nice about it and asked what he could do for us.

"We talked it over and came to the conclusion that the BEST and ONLY way to find another friend was to put an advertisement in the Cook County Herald. Ferdinand the Bull and all the rest of the barnyard friends had the Herald and newspapers, and so we pooled our ice cream money, 45 cents, and Mr. Kraus put the ad in the paper.

"Before Thursday went by, Mr. Kraus had all kinds of callers, the first one accepting Mr. Kraus' offer without even turning around and having a look at us. He said he had used 'Faddock's want-ads' before."

District No. 58 Drops Plan of Consolidation

The patrons of school district No. 58, located on Route 58 (Golf rd.), voted against consolidation Saturday night with any of the neighboring school districts. County Superintendent, Noble J. Puffer who attended the meeting in an advisory capacity, agreed with the school patrons that from an economic standpoint, a continuation of the present procedure permitted a big saving in tax costs to the landowners.

At the present time the children of the district attend neighboring schools, their tuition being paid by their own school district. State school authorities agree that the district is not jeopardizing its existence even if its school is closed as long as a yearly tax is levied and the children are receiving a proper education.

The only adjoining district which is favored by the people of District 58 is district 59, a two room school on Higgins rd., which has a tax rate four times that of district 58. If the latter district united with any other of the adjoining schools a new bldg. would probably be necessary in those districts with accompanying high school tax rate.

Twin Calves At Plote Farm

August Hackbarth came to town with a new story the other day. A cow at the Elmer Plote farm had given birth to twin calves and August reported that both youngsters were fine normal animals and doing well.

With people always wild to see the unusual, August and some of the folks at the farm are contemplating a tour of the farms to exhibit the twins.

Watch Out, Or The Cops Will Get You

Owners of autos and trucks have often learned their lesson because they had failed to procure the proper state licenses on time or had neglected to purchase city vehicle tag, but now it is the drivers of these cars that must "watch out or the cops will get you."

Regardless of previously published stories about an extension of time being granted for purchase of drivers license, May 1 was the zero hour and commencing next week, state officers will start a drive on drivers' licenses. The state only asks that the judge assess a $7 fine for lack of 1939 license plate, and the villages may only ask a fine of $2 against those who have not purchased their vehicle tags, but to drive a car without a drivers' license is now a serious offense and fines are supposed to be from $10 up.

Motorists stopped for speeding discover that if they have not their drivers' license, the latter is the more serious offense and will draw the heaviest fine. All police officers, village, county and state are required to pick up the drivers' license of those participating in accidents. Notations of such arrests are made on the back of the license. The man who is arrested frequently will soon be unable to drive a car.

Legion To Announce Youth Day Parade In Radio Broadcast

The annual youth parade and convention sponsored by the ninth district of the American Legion to be held May 21 in the northwest section of Chicago, will be the subject of a fifteen minute broadcast over station WHFC this Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock.

C. L. Griffith of Arlington Heights will be master of ceremonies and he will introduce Joseph O'Brien, commander of the ninth district, who will discuss the youth day program and purposes. "Buddy" Weisman of Palatine, who recently won second place in a Morris B. Sachs amateur show, will sing a few selections. The youngster will appear in the 8th street theater June 17 in the national barn dance program.

Victor A. Pecchia, of Arlington Heights, is chairman of this year's youth convention and parade. He is the junior vice commander of the ninth district. Mr. Griffith is chairman of the music and entertainment committee of the ninth district.

Residents of Palatine and Arlington Heights are urged to tune in this Sunday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock and listen to the Legion broadcast.

It Is Still Twelve Taverns In Arlington Heights

The expected rush for additional tavern licenses did not materialize and licenses were granted to the twelve locations previously used for that purpose. Mr. Watson has taken out the license for the Town Pump in his own name.

Women's Union To Study P-T. A. Training

The General Education Department of St. Paul's Evangelical church Women's Union will conduct a six lesson study group on Parent-Teacher Training, using the book entitled "Achieving a Christian Home of Today."

The first meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 9, at 2 o'clock in the church to which all members of the Union, all members of the church and friends of other churches and those who have no church affiliation in our community are invited.

This is an interesting book and all mothers and friends of children are urged to take advantage of this hour spent in thought about the future. There will be no expense.

Louis Schoppe Celebrates Birthday

Last Thursday evening a group of friends and relatives gathered at the Louis Schoppe home on So. Plum Grove ave. to help Louis celebrate his birthday.

A fine social evening was enjoyed by the crowd, the ladies playing cense plate, and the villages were kept busy visiting and settling the various political situations.

Mrs. Schoppe served a delightful lunch and it was nearly midnight when the sociable gathering broke up.

Present for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hatje, William Hatje, Ella Hatje and Mrs. Tillie Hatje of Barrington; Fred Langhoff, Elsie Langhoff, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Timmerman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoppe, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schoppe, Helen and Robert Schoppe and Tom Hart of Palatine.

The crowd wished Louis a lot more birthdays and many more such pleasant gatherings.

Luth. School Children Offer Entertainment

On Thursday and Friday evenings, May 11 and 12, respectively, the pupils of the Immanuel Lutheran school of Palatine, will present an entertainment, including two plays, entitled "Whose Pony is Pat?" and "The Borrowed Birthday Party," and an operetta, "Hansel and Gretel," adapted from the opera of H. Humperdinck and A. Wetze by Berta Elsmith. The program will begin at 7:45 p. m. Come to the Immanuel school hall and enjoy an evening of entertainment.

Skunk Hunt Stars Palatine North Side

A skunk hunt with banging guns and roaring police cars stirred the north side residents at Palatine the other day into the belief that a gangster hunt was on.

But when the smoke of battle died away the only victim was a lowly skunk which had been pestering the neighborhood with its maraudings and officer Folz had one more notch on his gun.

From reports from other parts of town there are more of these animals snooping around and we may look for some more thrilling chases.

Ruth Fosket Elected To District Epworth Office

At a meeting last Sunday at the Waukegan First Methodist church officers of the Lake Shore Sub-District of Epworth Leagues and Methodist Youth were elected for the coming year. Miss Ruth Fosket of Palatine was chosen Junior-Intermediate chairman.

Shuts Off Road To Palatine Cemetery

The roadway to the new part of Hillside cemetery at Palatine, which leads from Brockway st., has been fenced off by a property owner whose property the road apparently runs over.

So once more that entrance to the cemetery is a problem for the lot owners to think about.

A few years ago the partial blocking of that roadway by a garage, caused quite a commotion and now the fence on the other part brings up the problem once more.

The lot owners of the new section of the cemetery are calling a meeting for next Monday evening at the village hall when the problem of an entrance to the cemetery from Brockway st. will be discussed. All lot owners are urged to be present at that meeting.

Palatine Chapter O. E. S. Observes Friends' Night

Friday night, Palatine Chapter, O. E. S. was host to its officers and their friends. This evening is always a favorite with the officers because they invite their friends to fill their stations.

The following officers served: G. Bach, worthy matron of Germania Chapter, W. M. Geo. F. Voss, junior past patron of Palatine Chapter, W. P.; Alice Wirth, Lounsbury Chapter, A. M.; John Wirth, Lounsbury Chapter, A. P.; Hattie Barkel, Des Plaines Chapter, secretary; Georgiana Pankonin, Arlington Heights chapter, treasurer; Hazel Spillios, Rosedale chapter, conductress; Anne Sanders, Wilmette chapter, A. C.; Gladys Schmidtke, Palatine chapter, Chaplain; Louise Gallitz, Wheeling chapter, Marshall; Madeline Behr, Des Plaines chapter, organist; Mary Lueder, Mayflower chapter, Adah; Grace Goedke, Palatine chapter, Ruth; Mae Clerk, Wheeling chapter, Esther; Gertrude Milligan, Arlington Heights chapter, Marjorie Margaret Paddock, Palatine chapter, Electa; Anna Crowell, Des Plaines chapter, warder, and Elvin P. Steinbrink, Palatine chapter, sentinel. Geraldine Smith served as soloist, and Isabelle Stroker was the guest of honor.

The evening was especially delightful to those of German descent, because the acting worthy matron is from a chapter where only German is spoken. She obliged the guests by speaking a few words in the German language, which everyone enjoyed.

Railroad Expected To Approve Removal of Arlington Freight Depot

Final approval of the Northwestern R. R. is expected to be given today to the removal of the old freight depot and the erection of the new one at the west end of the west park (two blocks west of the present structure). Immediately on final approval, report of costs will be made to the general committee.

Many contractors have volunteered aid: supply men are expected to grant special prices on materials. With the purpose in view of getting the old depot out of the way before the race track opens, a whirlwind financial campaign will be necessary. Subscriptions may be solicited before next week's paper goes to press.

Students Get Honors At University of Ill.

Outstanding students at the University of Illinois were rewarded at the school's fifteenth annual Honors Day, held this Thursday at the university campus.

Palatine and Bensenville will be among the communities mentioned in the observance, because it is among the places from where have come these above-average students. Center of the day's observance will be the annual Honors Day Convention at the University of Illinois auditorium. Proceedings will be broadcast by the University's radio station WILL (580 kc.) Dr. E. Chauncey Baldwin, professor emeritus of English, will speak of "A Neglected Educational Opportunity."

The 1,093 outstanding scholars from among the University's enrollment are divided into three groups: The highest award goes to 41 outstanding seniors, whose names are cast on a bronze tablet to be placed permanently in the University library.

Second is a group of 220 students receiving "College Honors" by reason of being in the upper scholastic 3 per cent of the sophomore, junior, or senior classes in their respective colleges and schools. These are entitled to wear the University's scholarship emblem. The "Bronze Tablet" group also receive "College Honors."

Third is a group of 873 students whose work has ranked in the upper 10 per cent of their respective classes, no one of whom has an average grade below "B" for the time he has been in the University. Among those winning honors for high scholarship are: Allenby Plonsky, R. 2, College honors, agriculture; Harry Plonsky, R. 2, College honors, agriculture; Maurine Roberts, 206 E. Chicago ave., Class honors, class 1939, all of Palatine; Alexander Kouzmanoff, Irving Park, College honors, Fine and Applied Arts; Thomas J. Freeman, Jr., 174 Center, Class honors, class of 1940, both of Bensenville.

Board Discusses Many Problems

The Palatine village board at its meeting Monday night, received the treasurer's monthly report, passed a bunch of bills for payment when funds are available and then proceeded to talk over many problems.

The Lions club committee presented a flock of things for the consideration of the board and in addition the board had before it the problems of amending several errors in legal descriptions on some of the old special assessments, the calling of a special election for village trustee the curbing of the bicycle riding on sidewalks, the vehicle tax drive and several other problems.

No appointments were presented by the president, who is no doubt waiting for a full board before making up his list of committees.

Routine business kept the board in session until around eleven o'clock.

Discuss Plans for N. W. Bowling Tournament In Tenth Annual Meeting

The Northwest Lutheran Bowling Tournament, which was held in Elgin this year, was under discussion at a meeting held recently in Elgin. The meeting closed the tenth year of activity that was begun by Charles Dinse, of Palatine, proprietor of the Dinse Recreation Parlors.

The organization leaders this year made a few changes to benefit the suburban towns. The tournament is held two years in a suburban town and one year in Chicago. This arrangement is made to accommodate the suburban participants who now outnumber Chicagoans 2 to 1. It will be held in Chicago next year.

The tournament is run on a handicap basis. Team events and doubles and singles events will be divided between two bowling parlors.

Over 750 men bowl in the different events of this year's tournament, and Mr. Dinse has the distinction of having originated one of the first and largest on the northwest side.

TALES OF THE STREET

THE HUNTERS

Some fellows still like to play a joke on the unsuspecting. The other day some of the youngsters had a hunt. Someone suggested that they see if they could find a left handed monkey wrench.

Off went the gang on such a hunt, garages and other likely places where monkey wrenches might be found were visited and the youngsters were sent from place to place.

Finally someone took pity on them and supplied them with a wrench which he solemnly declared was a left handed one. The young hunters were happy and the fellow who had sent them chasing wild geese, had had his fun too, so everybody was happy.

HARD BOILED

There is probably not a more friendly and popular fellow around a town than Officer Charlie Folz. That is ordinarily.

But the last week or so Charlie has been the hard boiled cop. Up and down the street he went warning everyone under a village vehicle tag that he'd better get one pronto, that May 1 was the deadline and that after that it would be a ticket and a trip to the judge.

It was a case of duty above friendship and Charlie's friends were treated just like anyone else. And did it work? Well rather. The boys and gals rushed for the office of the village clerk in droves in order to get that sticker and beat Charlie's dead line.

All of which proves that an officer can be friendly but can still bear down and be hard boiled when he has to.

ACTION SOON—MAYBE

The owner of Palatine's much discussed "hole" in the heart of the business district, has had his attorney write a real "hot" letter to the bonding company which bonded the contractor for the fulfillment of his contract.

Now if the bonding company will get busy, we should see some action soon.

That hole has caused more discussion in the time that it's been there, than anything else that ever happened in Palatine.

The whole town is on edge about it and everyone hopes for action and mighty fast action.

He was confined to the bed two days, but is now able to be about.

Cut Farm Values 10 Per Cent

A blanket reduction of 10% in the valuation of all farms in Cook county has been ordered by assessor John S. Clark.

This action on the part of the county assessors followed the rather uproarious meetings of the county land valuator with the committees from the various townships and a visit paid to Mr. Clark by the land valuation committee of the Cook County Farm Bureau. Dan Bergman, Jr., of Palatine, is chairman of the Farm Bureau committee on land values.

The committee, like the various township committees, submitted prices of actual farm sales the vast majority of which were far less than the assessed valuation of the land.

Evidently all the storm raised against high farm values had some effect, for following the conference with the farm bureau committee, Mr. Clark ordered the blanket 10% reduction on farm valuations.

Following the concert the league will serve a buffet supper for fifteen cents. Please phone for reservations if you wish to eat supper with us. After supper a two reel motion picture, "On To Washington" will be shown. This is a picture tour of the Capitol City showing all of the newest buildings as well as the older ones. Whatever money is made by serving the supper will be added to our Institute fund, a fund to help those who wish to go to Lake Geneva for the summer institute in July.

A cordial welcome to all.

LETTERS to the Editor

An article published in this column on improvement of education in Palatine, was discussed at several mother's meetings, and the opinion gathered could be summarized as follows:

It has been felt with great satisfaction, that finally a group of taxpayers had the audacity to come out and criticize the present educational facilities of our Palatine grade school. They also realize that there is a need for better teachers with more experience in teaching.

The evident lack of finest educational results possible, especially in the last few years, makes this demand imperative. We want the teachers of our children to be physiologists and psychologists, not only routine followers. The mothers further have long realized there is an undeniable lack of facilities, which in turn has slackened the pace of educational development in our grade school.

It was voiced that if these conditions are brought about by a lack of funds available to the administrative body for operation of the elementary school for best possible results, certainly none would be unwilling to grant the necessary additional funds to keep up the standard of our grade school education, with that of other schools of similar rating.

If the saying, "nothing is too good for our children" really means that which it implies, we should be fully aroused now for action in order to raise a better generation, with the knowledge to rule themselves more beneficially in the future than at the present time.

Borghild Davis,
Helen Road, Palatine.

Twin Calves At Plote Farm

August Hackbart came to town with new stock the other day.

A cow at the Elmer Plote farm had given birth to twin calves and August reported that both youngsters were fine normal animals and doing well.

With people always wild to see the unusual, August and some of the folks at the farm are contemplating a tour of the farms to exhibit the twins.

Pigs Discover A New Home By Herald Want-Ad

Moving week was no task at all for thirteen little pigs at the farm of Fred Kraus. It wasn't twelve hours before they decided to leave the farm on Foundry and Elmhurst rds. when presto there were almost as many men as the pigs numbered, who had come to answer their plea for a new home. But let them speak for themselves.

"It was on a Wednesday when Mr. Kraus told us that our lease had expired, and it was time that we paid for our three months table fare. Mr. Kraus was very nice about it and asked what he could do for us.

"We talked it over and came to the conclusion that the BEST and ONLY way to find another friend was to put an advertisement in the Cook County Herald. Ferdinand the Bull and all the rest of their barnyard friends had found their new homes through the Herald and newspapers, and so we pooled our ice cream money, 45 cents, and Mr. Kraus put the ad in the paper.

"Before Thursday went by, Mr. Kraus had all kinds of callers, the first one accepting Mr. Kraus' offer without even turning around and having a look at us. He said he had used 'Paddock's want-ads' before."

New Officialdom Takes Over Wood Dale Village Affairs

Allan A. Myers DuPage investigator and Sheriff Elmer J. Corless, 34 years of age. He has a long police record, beginning his career at Har back as 1916. The body of the slain man was found May 15, 1937 and they have been questioning him but the lie detector shows he is not telling the truth.

Letters From Europe Bring Echoes Of War

Residents of Arlington Heights are receiving letters from relatives in Europe telling of the preparations for war that are being taken over there. One Arlington Heights business man received word this week that all of his relatives had been called to the colors in defense of Rumania. In this case the relatives are Germans who in reality are part of the minority being forced to act against their natural countrymen.

Loses Horses During An Hour Absence; Found Tied In Forest Preserve

Two horses, one of them worth $600, disappeared from the farm of Al Haseman, Elia and Dundee rds., last Friday evening, while Haseman had left them for about an hour. He discovered fence wires cut and started a search in the neighborhood until five hours later, they were found in the forest preserve, tied to a tree.

Watch Out, Or The Cops Will Get You

Owners of autos and trucks have often learned their lesson because they had failed to procure the proper state licenses on time or had neglected to purchase city vehicle tag, but now it is the drivers of these cars that must "watch out or the cops will get you."

Regardless of previously published stories about an extension of time being granted for purchase of drivers license, May 1 was the zero hour and commencing next week, state officers will start a drive on drivers' licenses. The state only asks that the judge assess a $7 fine for lack of 1939 license plate, and the villages may only ask a fine of $2 against those who have not purchased their vehicle tags, but to drive a car without a drivers' license is now a serious offense and fines are supposed to be from $10 up.

Motorists stopped for speeding discover that if they have not their drivers' license, the latter is the more serious offense and will draw the heaviest fine.

All police officers, village, county and state are required to pick up the drivers' license of those participating in accidents. Notations of such arrests are made on the back of the license. The man who is arrested frequently will soon be unable to drive a car.

New P-T. A. Officers To Be Installed Tues.

The next regular meeting of the Itasca Parent-Teacher's association, originally scheduled for May 16, has been changed to Tuesday, May 9, 8 p. m. at the Itasca public school. This will be the last meeting for the present school term.

The newly elected officers for the ensuing year will be installed at this meeting.

"Economy" Will Be By-Word; Save $85 At The Start

The conduct of the affairs of the village of Wood Dale passed into the hands of a new administration Monday night as a new mayor, four new councilmen, a new police magistrate and lesser appointive officials replaced the old ones.

Matt R. Baumann, the new mayor, succeeds Melvin S. Battin, the outgoing official who declined to run for office again. The new councilmen are Frank Snyder, Clarence Westby, Walter Prehn and Henry C. Miller.

The first act of the new mayor was the re-appointment of Paul A. Kittredge as treasurer of the Village of Wood Dale. Mr. Kittredge has served very efficiently in this office due to his knowledge of accounting and finance.

Harold Sargent was named as the new Village Marshal and Jack W. Hayner the new village clerk. Hayner succeeds Elmer Kurz, clerk for the past nine years. Kurz had resigned his position a few days ago but agreed to handle the work until his successor, who was not present, is established in the office.

The Village of Wood Dale is fortunate in securing the legal services of Henry Klein, Chicago attorney, free of charge. Mr. Klein was introduced to the meeting by his close friend, Harry Kouch, the new police magistrate. Mr. Klein occupies several responsible positions in Chicago. In addressing the board he stated he realized that small villages could not pay the price of competent legal services, but that he would be glad to advise the administration on any matters that might come up without cost to the village.

The village starts out the new fiscal year with 72 cents in the road and bridge fund; and $17.21 in the general fund. Outstanding obligations amount to $250.93. A saving of $85 has already been effected according to Mayor Baumann, by having personal bonds instead of surety bonds taken out for Village Officials. These bonds, states Mr. Baumann, have been approved by the county judge.

A good attendance was on hand to witness the installation of the new officials. But two of the retiring members of the council, Chas. F. Schroeder and Herman F. Hacker, were present. On retirement Mr. Schroeder addressed the gathering on behalf of the outgoing officers. He thanked the citizens of Wood Dale for their cooperation and hoped that they would see fit to cooperate equally with the present administration.

Skill Machines, Punch Boards Are No More

Was one of the newly elected aldermen responsible for the surprise raid Tuesday afternoon of the Arlington Heights police, which entered taverns, drug stores and other places of business removing ten "skill" machines, little brothers to the much famed slot machines?

Really, the Herald is not certain, but a little bird has whispered into the reporters' ear that it was one of the new aldermen who innocently inquired Monday night at a conference session of village board members, "if it were true that there were slot machines still in Arlington Heights." Complaints of parents centered around playing of penny machines by children.

Several of the older members replied in the negative, but the suggestion of slot machines was enough to send the police department into a huddle and lo and behold they found a total of ten. Some of them are only penny machines, but all of them were declared in the same class and it did not take long before Chief Skoog started on his collection tour about the business district.

The machines with their cash are locked up in the vault at the treasurer's office. The next day they were joined by a lot of punch boards.

Skunk Hunt Stars Palatine North Side

A skunk hunt with banging guns and roaring police cars stirred the north side residents at Palatine the other day into the belief that a gangster hunt was on.

But when the smoke of battle died away the only victim was a lowly skunk which had been pestering the neighborhood with its maraudings and officer Folz had one more notch on his gun.

From reports from other parts of town there are more of these animals snooping around and we may look for some more thrilling chases.

Married Wednesday

Miss Zelma Fischer, niece of Alton Fischer, Elmhurst banker, and Willert Brownson, both of Bensenville and vicinity were quietly married, Wednesday.

Two Palatine People Die Of Accident

The death of Mrs. Louis Reuse Friday was the second death as result of an auto accident April 22 between cars driven by Mrs. Reuse and Edw. Haemker, both of Palatine. Mr. L. T. Reuse, father-in-law of Mrs. Reuse died April 23. Mrs. Reuse remained in a critical condition at the Community hospital an entire week before internal injuries caused her death April 29.

The funeral was held Sunday at Palatine M. E. church with interment in Hillside cemetery.

Mrs. Chas. Plate died April 28 at the Community hospital, Palatine, 18 hours after having seriously burned at her farm home Thursday morning while engaged in preparation of dinner when in some manner a jacket caught fire. She was outdoors, calling for help of her husband who was on his way to the house. The upper part of her clothing had been burned off her body and there was little hope for her recovery although she was rushed to the hospital.

The funeral was held at the Plum Grove Evangelical church.

Lutheran Mass Celebration At Elmhurst, Sun.

Bensenville and Itasca Churches Participate

Sunday afternoon, May 7 at 3 o'clock, a mass Lutheran celebration of the Immigration Centennial of the Founders of the Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other States will be held in the Auditorium of the York Community high school, Elmhurst. The centennial of this immigration is being commemorated and celebrated on a nation wide scale.

Ten churches from Elmhurst, Bensenville, Itasca, York Center, Villa Park, Lombard, Glen Ellyn and Wheaton will unite in the great mass Centennial celebration. Dr. O. C. Kreinheder, president of the Palatino University, will deliver the Centennial address. A chorus of more than 150 voices, under the leadership of Mr. William Bertram, will enhance and beautify the centennial service with the rendition of appropriate anthems.

The Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states had its beginning a century ago when a small group of 650 Lutheran emigrants from Saxony sailed for the United States of America on five chartered ships.

They left their homeland because the religious tyranny of rationalism prevented them from worshipping God according to the dictates of their conscience and the teachings of Holy Scripture. The United States was chosen by this group of Lutherans because it guaranteed to them religious liberty, which we are still fortunate to enjoy in our country to this day.

Can't Find Trace Of Burglars Who Took $13 From Franzen Lbr. Co.

No clues have yet been found in the burglary staged last week at the Geo. Franzen Lumber Company in Bensenville where $13 was taken in Canadian money, nickels, dimes and quarters. The job was reported to the sheriff's office at Wheaton whose investigators reported that no fingerprints are evident. The burglars got into the place from the rear after cutting a hole through a celotex wall and jimmying two doors through the wash room into the main office.

The fact that nothing else in the office was touched indicates that the invader must have been an amateur or a collector of odd coins.

The first meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 9, at 2 o'clock in the church to which all members of the Union, all members of the church and friends of other churches and those who have no church affiliation in our community are invited.

This is an interesting book and all mothers and friends of children are urged to take advantage of this hour spent in thought about our youth, the citizens and parents of the future. There will be no expense.

Everybody is invited to attend the 3rd annual dance of the Wood Dale Fire department this Saturday evening at Scheidel's Hall. A good orchestra has been selected to furnish the music and those who attend are guaranteed a good time.

The proceeds of this dance go to the support of the local volunteer firemen, helping to provide equipment and defray the ordinary expenses of departmental maintenance.

L. C. A. Sale Wednesday Generously Supported

The young ladies of the L. C. A. held their annual rummage sale in Hack's Ballroom Wednesday and Thursday. Though the large ballroom was crowded with donations to these young ladies who do so much charitable work, they melted away rapidly.

They sincerely thank all who have helped so generously to make these sales a success both those who give and those who buy.

The proceeds will go, as usual, to making life easier for those who are less fortunate. These ladies especially provide for funds for a generous allowance of milk for children.

Dog Brings Aid Of Family To Stubby Meyer

A dog is man's best friend no matter if the animal is a "Duke's mixture," says Stubby Meyer since early Friday morning. Mr. Meyer had started up the stairs from his tavern, when he lost consciousness. The dog was on the other side of the tavern door, but seemed to sense that something was wrong. His frantic barking awoke the family who found Mr. Meyer at the foot of the stairs. He was confined to the bed two days, but is now able to be about.

County Highway Police In Bensenville Tuesday

Several squad cars of DuPage county highway police were in Bensenville Tuesday where they patrolled the streets. Due to changes being made in the village police department, the impression got abroad that the community was without police protection. Because it was railroad payday several merchants appealed to the county as a safeguard, it is said.

'Retrenchment' Is The Policy Of Bensenville's New Board

President Peck Institutes Changes At First Meeting

"Retrenchment" is to be the policy of the present Bensenville administration it was indicated at the first board meeting of the new year when newly elected officials were installed and William Peck, village president, for the first time since he was elected to office was assured support for his policies.

Until the meeting of Thursday last week, the majority of the board was of a different faith, but now he has the majority with him and it can be expected that an economy program that he has long had in mind will soon take shape.

New members to be installed were trustees John Reher, Earl White, John Thomas and George J. Hampton. These members are supporting President Peck's program. The holdover trustees Chas. Slack and William Bishop indicate no allegiance to the Village President's ideas and feel free to vote independently, or refrain from voting as they did on the police question, on all matters.

It was announced at the meeting that some drastic changes were being made in the police department and that Harry O. Kolze was no longer in the service of the village. In his stead and until such time that a new policeman is appointed Leonard Wagner will serve as policeman. The new plan envisages a reduction of the policeman's salary from $175 per month to $130 per month with changes of hours of duty. To this end the Village of Bensenville is advertising for applicants to bid for the job of policeman. Other changes to be made in the village personnel are changes in the offices of village attorney and village engineer. The new officials will probably be announced at the next meeting.

Judge Behrens Decides Moonlight Makes A Difference

The state police found a Park Ridge contractor and the lady friend parked without lights on the shoulder of the highway Tuesday evening. They took the couple to Judge Behrens at Arlington Heights even if the hour was late. The judge had not forgotten the time when he was young and on the plea of the man that the combination of moonlight and a lovely maid was irresistible, dismissed the case.

The arresting officer admitted that the judge was probably right.

Cut Farm Values 10 Per Cent

A blanket reduction of 10% in the valuation of all farms in Cook county has been ordered by assessor John S. Clark.

This action on the part of the county assessors followed the rather uproarious meetings of the county land valuator with the committees from the various townships and a visit paid to Mr. Clark by the land valuation committee of the Cook County Farm Bureau.

Dan Bergman, Jr., of Palatine, is chairman of the Farm Bureau committee on land values.

The committee, like the various township committees, submitted prices of actual farm sales the vast majority of which were for far less than the assessed valuation of the land.

Evidently all the storm raised against high farm values had some effect, for following the conference with the farm bureau committee, Mr. Clark ordered the blanket 10% reduction on farm valuations.

Cars Crash, No One Hurt Until Drivers Start Fist Fight

One driver involved in a collision, landed in the Palatine hospital as the result of injuries sustained in a fist fight with the driver of the other car, Sunday evening, D. A. Fiore, of Chicago, was taken to the Community hospital after trying to match blows with Thomas Ksiezky, of Chicago, after their two cars collided on the Northwest highway, near Quentins rd., Palatine.

The place which represents Roselle latest business improvement has been entirely remodeled inside and out in the modern streamlined manner. The exterior is done in gray asphalt shingles. The interior consisting of a restaurant and confectionery, a tavern and a dance floor and dining room is very attractive in nassonite panel and decorative board. All trimmings are in chromium and the doors are of asphalt tile. The rooms are sound proof.

Art Kleinschmidt, the proprietor, began business in a modest way in Roselle 15 years ago. Year by year his business has increased until he found it necessary "to keep step with the times" by building a modern place containing all the desirable conveniences of today and providing modern service.

The Kleinschmidt restaurant and tavern can now offer anything the appetite desires, from a sandwich to a full course dinner. Special facilities and special attention are given to parties and organization dinners.

Fred C. Ehlers Is Installed At Bloomingdale

New President Launches Village Into New Fiscal Year

Fred C. Ehlers, Bloomingdale's new village president, was installed last Wednesday night before a small and quiet gathering. With him to take the oath of office were three trustees elected April 18: William Grupe, Edward Randecker and Harold Ryder. The other three members on the board are Fred Koehn, Adolph Meyer and Aug. Fessler.

Appointments by the new president concurred in by the board are William Randecker, village treasurer, and John Weishaar for the office of village marshal. Walter Petersohn is the village clerk.

It will be the policy of the present administration to conduct the affairs of the village in the most economical manner possible. Since the members of the official family are taxpayers they will all know how to keep the budget trimmed to a minimum.

Lions Sponsor Clean-Up Week In Bensenville

Ask Residents To Cooperate; Poster Contest Announced

May 15 to 19 has been designated as "Clean Up and Paint Up Week," by the Bensenville Lions. It is thought to be a timely project inasmuch as Bensenville is to be host to many visitors on Youth Day of the County Centennial, May 20.

A poster contest advertising the week is being conducted in the 7th and 8th grades of Grammar school and the first year of high school. A first prize of $3.00, second $2.00, and third of $1.00 will be awarded children designing the "winning posters."

Fred Koebelman, Lion's president, addressed the students May 3. The poster contest is to end May 8.

It is expected that the residents of Bensenville will cooperate fully with the Lion's Club in making the city look "spic and span" for Youth Day. Further details will appear in next week's issue of the Register.

Double Parking Of Autos Places Young Boy In Hospital

Craig (Sparky) Baldwin, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Baldwin, dodged around a parked truck on Dunton st., in front of his father's store last Thursday at the same moment that an auto was approaching. There was a scream as the little fellow was hurled to the ground, a front wheel passing over a leg. The car was stopped by its driver "on a dime." The little fellow was picked up by his dad and rushed to Dr. Meisenheimer's office and later to Elmhurst hospital. The only injuries are a broken right leg. Sparky is a courageous little fellow and if good wishes of Arlington Heights friends mean anything, it will not be many weeks when he will again be on his feet.

Sparky is getting along nicely and sends messages to his friends at home every time his mother visits him.

The only blame, if there is a blame can be placed on the fact that double parking existed on the street at the time. Sparky had no opportunity to see the approaching car. The same thing could have happened to any child.

Red Wings Play Chicago Nine This Sunday

Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock in Recreation Park, the empire will shout "play ball" and the Arlington Redwings will open the 1933 baseball season. The Chicago Cardinals, one of the better colored teams from Chicago, will be the opponents.

Last year this same club helped Arlington open the season and put up such a great stand that it required a desperate nine inning rally by the Redwings to snatch a victory by the narrow margin of 5-4.

The Chicago Cardinals are a firmly established team being well organized, carrying over their best players from year to year thereby assuring themselves of a high class club right from the start of the year.

From what manager Page has heard at the Mid-west League meeting, the Cardinals are stronger and intend to take the winners prize this time. Their main improvement is a new pitcher, who if better than the one of last year, may give Arlington hitters trouble.

This will be the tenth year of the Redwings and the third year they are playing in Recreation Park which is believed to be the best semi-pro ball field around Chicago. Only a few men on the present team were on the original club during the first few years.

The club has been built into a strong semi-pro outfit made up of practically all home town boys.

Early Service For Mt. Prospect Golfers

The Episcopal church believes that the Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath. Starting next Sunday, May 7, there will be a service at 8:45 a. m., instead of 11:00 a. m., so that people who wish to play golf, or commune with nature, will not have to sacrifice their religious duty to do so.

This service will be continued through the summer, until further notice.

District No. 58 Drops Plan of Consolidation

The patrons of school district No. 58, located on Route 58 (Golf rd.) voted against consolidation Saturday night with any of the neighboring school districts. County Superintendent, Noble J. Puffer who attended the meeting in an advisory capacity, agreed with the school patrons that from an economic standpoint, a continuation of the present procedure permitted a big saving in tax costs to the landowners.

At the present time the children of the district attend neighboring schools, their tuition being paid by their own school district. State school authorities agree that the district is not jeopardizing its existence even if its school is closed as long as a yearly tax is levied and the children are receiving a proper education.

The only adjoining district which is favored by the people of District 58 is district 59, a two room school on Higgins rd., which has a tax rate four times that of district 58. If the latter district united with any other of the adjoining schools a new bldg. would probably be necessary in those districts with accompanying high school tax rate.

The Weekly Sermon

Of the Addison Township Ministerial Union

SUPPOSE EVERYBODY DID IT?
Text: One of them, when He saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice, glorified God. (Luke 17:15).

The story of how Jesus cured the ten lepers, and of how but one of these ten came back to thank Him, makes one naturally ask the question: "Suppose they had all done so?" What then? The philosopher, Kant, once said that every moral point should be tested by that question: "Suppose everybody did it, would the result be good or bad?"

No man has a right to adopt a course of action that all other men should not also have the right to adopt. The man who stays away from church and claims it is his own business, yet admits the value of the church and sends his children there, though he be a community leader, has adopted a course of action that will not stand the

Students Get Honors At University of Ill.

Outstanding students at the University of Illinois were rewarded at the school's fifteenth annual Honors Day, held this Thursday at the university campus.

Palatine and Bensenville will be among the communities mentioned in the observance, because it is among the places from where have come these above-average students. Center of the day's observance will be the annual Honors Day Convocation at 10 a. m. in the university auditorium. Proceedings will be broadcast by the University's radio station WILL (580 kc.) Dr. E. Chauncey Baldwin, professor emeritus of English, will speak of "A Neglected Educational Opportunity."

From the 1,093 outstanding scholars from among the University's enrollment are divided into three groups: The highest award goes to 41 outstanding seniors, whose names are cast on a bronze tablet to be placed permanently in the University library.

Second is a group of 220 students receiving "College Honors" by reason of being in the upper scholastic 3 per cent of the sophomore, junior, or senior classes in their respective colleges and schools. Freeman, Jr., 174 Center, Class honors, class of 1940, both of Bensenville.

Twin Calves At Plote Farm

August Hackbart came to town with a new story the other day. A cow at the Elmer Plote farm had given birth to twin calves and August reported that both youngsters were fine normal animals and doing well.

With people always wild to see the unusual, August and some of the folks at the farm are contemplating a tour of the fair to exhibit the twins.

Pigs Discover A New Home By Herald Want-Ad

Moving week was no task at all for thirteen little pigs at the farm of Fred Kraus. It wasn't twelve hours before they decided to leave the farm on Foundry and Elmhurst rds., when presto there were almost as many men as the pigs numbered, who had come to answer their plea for a new home. But let them speak for themselves.

"It was on a Wednesday when Mr. Kraus told us that our lease had expired, and it was time that we paid for our three months table fare. Mr. Kraus was very nice about it and asked what he could do for us.

New Officialdom Takes Over Wood Dale Village Affairs

Lie Detector Shows Simka Is Not Telling Truth, Report

Allan A. Myers DuPage investigator and Sheriff Elmer J. Hoffman used county's new lie detector last week in questioning Joe Simka, ex-convict, held in the county jail without bond as a suspect in the death of a Maywood man by the name of George J. Corless, 34 years of age. He has a long police record, beginning his career as far back as 1916. The body of the slain man was found May 15, 1937 and they have been questioning him but the lie detector shows he is not telling the truth.

Letters From Europe Bring Echoes Of War

Residents of Arlington Heights are receiving letters from relatives in Europe telling of the preparations for war that are being taken over there. One Arlington Heights business man received word this week that all of his relatives had been called to the colors in defense of Rumania. In this case the relatives are German who in reality are part of the minority being forced to act against their natural countrymen.

Loses Horses During An Hour Absence; Found Tied In Forest Preserve

Two horses, one of them worth $600, disappeared from the farm of Al Haseman, Ela and Dundee rds., last Friday evening, while Haseman had left them for about an hour. He discovered fence wires cut and started a search in the neighborhood until five hours later, they were found in the forest preserve, tied to a tree.

Watch Out, Or The Cops Will Get You

Owners of autos and trucks have often learned their lesson because they had failed to procure the proper state licenses on time or had neglected to purchase city vehicle tag, but now it is the drivers of these cars that must "watch out or the cops will get you."

Regardless of previously published stories about an extension of time being granted for purchase of drivers license, May 1 was the zero hour and commencing next week, state officers will start a drive on drivers' licenses. The state only asks that the judge assess a $7 fine for lack of 1939 license plate, and the villages may only ask a fine of $2 against those who have not purchased their vehicle tags, but to drive a car without a drivers' license is now a serious offense and fines are supposed to be from $10 up.

Motorists stopped for speeding discover that if they have not their drivers' license, the latter is the more serious offense and will draw the heaviest fine.

All police officers, village, county and state are required to pick up the drivers' license of those participating in accidents. Notations of such arrests are made on the back of the license. The man who is arrested frequently will soon be unable to drive a car.

New P.-T. A. Officers To Be Installed Tues.

The next regular meeting of the Itasca Parent-Teacher's association, originally scheduled for May 16, has been changed to Tuesday, May 9, 8 p. m. at the Itasca public school. This will be the last meeting for the present school term.

The newly elected officers for the ensuing year will be installed at this meeting.

"Economy" Will Be By-Word; Save $85 At The Start

The conduct of the affairs of the village of Wood Dale passed into the hands of a new administration Monday night as a new mayor, four new councilmen, a new police magistrate and lesser appointive officials replaced the old ones.

Matt R. Baumann, the new mayor, or, succeeded Melvin S. Battin, the outgoing official who declined to run for office again. The new councilmen are Frank Snyder, Clarence Westby, Walter Prehm and Henry C. Miller.

The first act of the new mayor was the re-appointment of Paul A. Kittredge as treasurer of the Village of Wood Dale. Mr. Kittredge has served very efficiently in this office during the past year of accounting and finance.

Harold Sargent was named as the new Village Marshal and Jack W. Hayner the new village clerk. Hayner succeeds Elmer Kurz, clerk for the past nine years. Kurz had resigned his position a few days ago but agreed to handle the work until his successor, who was not present, is established in the office.

The Village of Wood Dale is fortunate in securing the legal services of Henry Klein, Chicago attorney, free of charge. Mr. Klein was introduced to the meeting by his close friend, Harry Kouch, the new police magistrate. Mr. Klein occupies several responsible positions in Chicago. In addressing the board he stated he realized that small villages could not pay the price of competent legal services, but that he would be glad to advise the administration on any matters that might come up without cost to the village.

The village starts out the new fiscal year with 72 cents in the road and bridge fund; and $17.21 in the general fund. Outstanding obligations amount to $250.93. A saving of $85 has already been effected according to Mayor Baumann, by having personal bonds instead of surety bonds taken out for Village Officials. These bonds, states Mr. Baumann, have been approved by the county judge.

A good attendance was on hand to witness the installation of the new officials. But two of the retiring members of the council, Chas. F. Schroeder and Herman P. Hacker, were present. On retirement Mr. Schroeder addressed the gathering on behalf of the outgoing officers. He thanked the citizens of Wood Dale for their cooperation and hoped that they would see fit to cooperate equally with the present administration.

Skill Machines, Punch Boards Are No More

Was one of the newly elected aldermen responsible for the surprise raid Tuesday afternoon of the Arlington Heights police, which entered taverns, drug stores and other places of business removing ten "skill" machines, little brothers to the much famed slot machines?

Really, the Herald is not certain, but a little bird has whispered into the reporters' ear that it was one of the new aldermen who innocently inquired Monday night at a conference session of village board members, "If it were true that there were slot machines still in Arlington Heights." Complaints of parents centered around playing of penny machines by children.

Several of the older members replied in the negative, but the suggestion of slot machines was enough to send the police department into a huddle and lo behold they found a total of ten. Some of them are only penny machines, but all of them were declared in the same class and it did not take long before Chief Skoog started on his collection tour about the business district.

The machines with their cash are locked up in the vault at the treasurer's office. The next day they were joined by a lot of punch boards.

Skunk Hunt Stars Palatine North Side

A skunk hunt with banging guns and roaring police cars stirred the north side residents at Palatine the other day into the belief that a gangster hunt was on.

But when the smoke of battle died away the only victim was a lowly skunk which had been pestering the neighborhood with its maraudings and officer Foltz had one more notch on his gun.

From reports from other parts of town there are more of these animals snooping around and we may look for some more thrilling chases.

Married Wednesday

Miss Zelma Fischer, niece of Alonzo Fischer, Elmhurst banker, and Wilbert Brownson, both of Bensenville and vicinity were quietly married, Wednesday.

Two Palatine People Die Of Accident

The death of Mrs. Louis Reuse Friday was the second death as result of an auto accident April 22 between cars driven by Mrs. Reuse and Edw. Haemker, both of Palatine. Mr. L. T. Reuse, father-in-law of Mrs. Reuse died April 23. Mrs. Reuse remained in a critical condition at the Community hospital an entire week before internal injuries caused her death April 29.

The funeral was held Sunday at Palatine M. E. church with interment in Hillside cemetery. Mrs. Chas. Plate died April 28 at the Community hospital, Palatine, 18 hours after being seriously burned at her farm home southwest of Palatine. She had leaped over a kitchen stove Thursday morning while engaged in preparation of dinner when in some manner a jacket caught fire. She ran outdoors, calling for help of her husband who was on his way to the house. The upper part of her clothing had been burned off her body and there was little hope for her recovery although she was rushed to the hospital.

The funeral was held at the Plum Grove Evangelical church.

Lutheran Mass Celebration At Elmhurst, Sun.

Bensenville and Itasca Churches Participate

Sunday afternoon, May 7 at 3 o'clock, a mass Lutheran celebration of the Immigration Centennial of the Founders of the Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other States will be held in the Auditorium of the York Community high school, Elmhurst. The centennial of this immigration is being commemorated and celebrated on a nation wide scale.

Ten churches from Elmhurst, Bensenville, Itasca, York Center, Villa Park, Lombard, Glen Ellyn and Wheaton will unite in the great mass centennial celebration. Dr. O. C. Kreinheder, president of the Valparaiso University, will deliver the Centennial address. A chorus of more than 150 voices, under the leadership of Mr. William Bertman, will enhance and beautify the centennial service with the rendition of appropriate anthems.

The Lutheran Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states had its beginning a century ago when a small group of 650 Lutheran emigrants from Saxony sailed for the United States of America on five chartered ships.

They left their homeland because the religious tyranny of rationalism prevented them from worshipping God according to the dictates of their conscience and the teachings of Holy Scripture. The United States was chosen by this group of Lutherans because it guaranteed to them religious liberty, which we are still fortunate to enjoy in our country to this day.

Can't Find Trace Of Burglars Who Took $13 From Franzen Lbr. Co.

No clues have yet been found in the burglary staged last week at the Geo. Franzen Lumber Company in Bensenville where $13, dimes and quarters. The job was reported to the sheriff's office at Wheaton whose investigators reported that no fingerprints are evident. The burglars got into the place from the rear after cutting a hole through a celotex wall and jimmying two doors through the wash room into the main office.

The fact that nothing else in the office was touched indicates that the invader must have been an amateur or a collector of odd coins.

Railroad Expected To Approve Removal Of Arlington Freight Depot

Final approval of the Northwest-ern R. R. is expected to be given today to the removal of the old freight depot and the erection of the new one at the west end of the west park (two blocks west of the present structure. Immediately on final approval, report of costs will be made to the general committee. Many contractors have volunteered aid; supply men are expected to grant special prices on materials. With the purpose in view of getting the old depot out of the way before the race track opens, a whirlwind financial campaign will be necessary.

Subscriptions may be solicited before next week's paper goes to press.

To Be Married

Miss Betty Leek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. Leek of Bensenville, and Oliver Franzen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Franzen of Bensenville, will be united in marriage Saturday, May 13.

Women's Union To Study P.-T. A. Training

The General Education Department of St. Paul's Evangelical church Women's Union will conduct a six lesson study group on Parent-Teacher Training, using the book entitled "Achieving a Christian Home of Today."

The first meeting will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 9, at 2 o'clock in the church to which all members of the Union, all members of the church and friends of other churches and those who have no church affiliation in our community are invited.

This is an interesting book and all mothers and friends of children are urged to take advantage of this hour spent in thought about our youth, the citizens and parents of the future. There will be no expense.

Everybody is invited to attend the 3rd annual dance of the Wood Dale Fire department this Saturday evening at Scheide's Hall. A good orchestra has been selected to furnish the music and those who attend are guaranteed a good time.

The proceeds of this dance go to the support of the local volunteer firemen, helping to provide equipment and defray the ordinary expenses of departmental maintenance.

Your support of the Wood Dale firemen in their worthy endeavor is solicited and will be appreciated by every member of the squad.

L. C. A. Sale Wednesday Generously Supported

The young ladies of the L. C. A. held their annual rummage sale in Hack's Ballroom Wednesday and Thursday. Though the large ballroom was crowded with donations to these young ladies who do so much charitable work, they melted away rapidly.

They sincerely thank all who have helped so generously to make these sales a success both those who give and those who buy.

The proceeds will go, as usual, to making life easier for those who are less fortunate. These ladies especially provide for funds for a generous allowance of milk for children.

Dog Brings Aid Of Family To Stubby Meyer

A dog is man's best friend no matter if the animal is a "Duke's mixture," says Stubby Meyer since early Friday morning. Mr. Meyer had started up the stairs from his tavern, when he lost consciousness. The dog was on the other side of the tavern door, but seemed to sense that something was wrong. His frantic barking awoke the family who found Mr. Meyer at the foot of the stairs. He was confined to the bed two days, but is now able to be about.

County Highway Police In Bensenville Tuesday

Several squad cars of DuPage county highway police were in Bensenville Tuesday where they patrolled the streets. Due to changes being made in the village police department, the impression got abroad that the community was without police protection. Because it was railroad payday several merchants appealed to the county as a safeguard, it is said.

'Retrenchment' Is The Policy Of Bensenville's New Board

President Peck Institutes Changes At First Meeting

"Retrenchment" is to be the policy of the present Bensenville administration it was indicated at the first board meeting of the new year when newly elected officials were installed and William Peck, village president, for the first time since he was elected to office was assured support for his policies.

Until the meeting of Thursday of last week, the majority of the board was of a different faith, but now he has the majority with him and it can be expected that an economy program that he has long had in mind will soon take shape.

New members to be installed were trustees John Reher, Earl White, John Thomas and George J. Hampton. These members are supporting President Peck's program. The holdover trustees Chas. Mack and William Bishop indicate no allegiance to the Village President's ideas and feel free to vote independently, or refrain from voting as they did on the police question, on all matters.

It was announced at the meeting that some drastic changes were being made in the police department and that Harry O. Kolze was no longer in the service of the village. In his stead and until such time that a new policeman is appointed Leonard Wagner will serve as policeman. The new plan envisages a reduction of the policeman's salary from $175 per month to $130 per month with changes of hours of duty. To this end the Village of Bensenville is advertising for applicants to bid for the job of policeman. Other changes to be made in the village personnel are changes in the offices of village attorney and village engineer. The new officials will probably be announced at the next meeting.

Judge Behrens Decides Moonlight Makes A Difference

The state police found a Park Ridge contractor and the lady friend parked without lights on the shoulder of the highway Tuesday evening. They took the couple to Judge Behrens at Arlington Heights even if the hour was late. The judge had not forgotten the time when he was young and on the plea of the man that the combination of moonlight and a lovely maid was irresistible, dismissed the case.

The arresting officer admitted that the judge was probably right.

Cut Farm Values 10 Per Cent

A blanket reduction of 10% in the valuation of all farms in Cook county has been ordered by assessor John S. Clark.

This action on the part of the county assessors followed the rather uproarious meetings of the county land valuator with the committees from the various townships and a visit paid to Mr. Clark by the land valuation committee of the Cook County Farm Bureau.

Dan Bergman, Jr., of Palatine, is chairman of the Farm Bureau committee on land values.

The committee, like the various township committees, submitted prices of actual farm sales for the vast majority of which were for less than the assessed valuation of the land.

Evidently all the storm raised against high farm values had some effect, for following the conference with the farm bureau committee, Mr. Clark ordered the blanket 10% reduction on farm valuations.

Lions Sponsor Clean-Up Week In Bensenville

Ask Residents To Cooperate; Poster Contest Announced

May 15 to 19 has been designated as "Clean Up and Paint Up Week," by the Bensenville Lions. It is thought to be a timely project inasmuch as Bensenville is to be host to many visitors on Youth Day of the County Centennial, May 20.

A poster contest advertising the week is being conducted in the 7th and 8th grades of Grammar school and the first year of high school. A first prize of $3.00, second $2.00, and third of $1.00 will be awarded children designing the winning posters.

Fred Koebman, Lion's president, addressed the students May 3. The poster contest is to end May 8.

It is expected that the residents of Bensenville will cooperate fully with the Lion's Club in making the city look "spic and span" for Youth Day. Further details will appear in next week's issue of the Register.

Double Parking Of Autos Places Young Boy In Hospital

Craig (Sparky) Baldwin, four year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Orval Baldwin, dodged around a parked truck on Dunton st., in front of his father's store last Thursday at the same moment that an auto was approaching. There was a scream as the little fellow was hurled to the ground, a front wheel passing over a leg. The car was stopped by its driver "on a dime." The little fellow was picked up by his dad and rushed to Dr. Meisenheimer's office and later to Elmhurst hospital. The only injuries are a broken right leg. Sparky is a courageous little fellow and if good wishes of Arlington Heights friends mean anything, it will not be many weeks when he will again be on his feet.

Sparky is getting along nicely and sends messages to his friends at home every time his mother visits him.

The only blame, if there is a blame, can be placed on the fact that double parking existed on the street at the time. Sparky had no opportunity to see the approaching car. The same thing could have happened to any child.
